THE GEORGIA HARPER CO.

The excellent bills of the Georgia Harper Co. the past week have been a surprise and delight to the play goers of Burns and vicinity. The company has fully sustained the high character, reputation and excellence that preceded it to our city. In fact those who had seen the company before did not overate its talent, nor even give the troupe its full credit. It is without exception the best troupe ever visiting this section.
 The opening production, "The Lyric Queen," was a decided success and won the public at once and the house has been filled every night since. Miss Georgia Harper as "Queen" and in the entitled role "Camille" had ample opportunity to display her genius as an actress of the highest rank.
 Joe Detrick's versatility has been shown by his excellent work both in heavy as well as comedy. E. H. Meade, who is considered a home boy, has pleased his many admirers and friends with his specialties and Sam Meharry's singing has been a very pleasing feature. Miss Brady and Miss Browne have shown good talent in various roles. The entire company is good, in fact, and The Times-Herald is pleased to announce the troupe will spend a few weeks here and give Saturday night performances. They do not only please on the stage but are all ladies and gentlemen whom it is a pleasure to meet.
 The people have shown their appreciation of the Georgia Harper Co. by giving each performance a packed house and will continue to do so.

A large crowd attended the ball last night.
 James Paul, the Happy Valley sheepman, is among our visitors.
 Three good milch cows to trade for horses or a good new wagon.
 O. O. Dutcher,
