Wm. McKinney, John Robinson, Cy Ankeny and Dewey Robinson arrived home Sunday from their outing on the Deschutes. They had a fine time, plenty of fish but very little game. Cy saw several bear tracks, but failed to get a shot.

J. L. Huffman and wife were over from Canyon City this week with a load of peaches. John is laying off from the print shop on a little vacation at present. He holds a case down in the Eagle office. This office acknowledges a call from Mr. and Mrs. Huffman.

"Grandma" Haskell was a caller at this office yesterday morning, having come in to see the typesetting machine in operation. We were compelled to disappoint her, however, as our operator was not in the office. "Grandma" has ripe tomatoes in her garden in this city, which is certainly a good showing for this time of the year in this section.

Harvey Douglas, the big sheep man, has just returned from outside points where he has been shipping sheep and disposing of his wool clip. He sold his wool at Winnemucca, Nev., for 13 1/2 cents per pound. He also disposed of 12,000 head of sheep in California. Mr. Douglas still has 8,000 head of sheep ranging in the Stein Mountain country.

"Ten Nights in a Barroom" the grand old temperance drama, was put on the boards by the Georgia Harper Co. last Sunday evening. It was an excellent rendition and most thoroughly appreciated by the large crowd in attendance. Little Marie Hemmer as Mary, the little daughter of Joe Morgan, deserves special praise for the manner in which she played her part. It is quite a difficult part for one so young. She did exceptionally well.

Died--July 29, at the home of her son at Riddle, Oregon, Mrs. Sarah Ulam, from cancer of the breast after an illness of over a year. Deceased was an Oregon pioneer, having settled in Douglas county 32 years ago. She was born in Princeton, Iowa. Mrs. Ulam was the mother of Mr. Peter Clemens of Poison creek and was here on a visit to the latter last summer. Besides Mrs. Clemens she leaves one daughter, Mrs. Addie Thomas of Silver Lake, Washington and a son, Peter Ulam of Riddle. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in this county.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of the latter and Sheriff Allen arrived in this city last night with his prisoner. His preliminary will be held before Justice Miller Monday.

A letter from Prof. W. F. Werschul announces that he will arrive in Burns about the middle of next week and will immediately take up the organization of his music class. Those who have given their names to the manager of this great religious weekly are requested to be ready to meet the professor. Possibly a public meeting will be held to which all who are interested in music will be invited, where the class will be organized.

NOTICE FOR BIDS

Notice is hereby given that bids will be received by the County Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Harney, for the grading of certain parts of the County Roads of said county, viz:

LAWEN-NARROWS ROAD.

The first piece beginning about a quarter of a mile south of the residence of J. L. Sitz and about 100 feet north of the north end of present grade and running thence south 1200 feet to where the road turns west.

The second piece beginning about a quarter of a mile west of the terminus of the first piece and running West and South for a distance of 1000 feet to the North end of the grade built in the fall of 1902.

The third piece beginning at the West end of the grade built in the fall of 1902, on the west of Silvie's River, between the lands of F. Crowley and the P. L. S. Co., and running a distance of 2000 feet.

FENWICK LANE ROAD.

Road Grade and Bridges, beginning at the south end of the Lane and extending for a distance of 8000 feet to the north end of the lane.

There will be available for payment on said contracts, for the Lawen-Narrows Road $1000.00 and for the Fenwick Lane Road, $600.00 out of the Road Fund, this year, balance, if contracts are completed this fall, to be paid by warrants redeemable in the spring of 1904.

Specifications for said proposed work are now on file at my office. Bids will be opened and considered on Thursday, September 3, 1903, at 1 o'clock P. M.

The Court will award the contracts to the lowest bidder, reserving the right to reject any and all bids if they deem them too high.

Each bid shall be accompanied by a bond, signed by two or more freeholders, in double the amount of the bid, as surties, made payable to the county for the faithful performance of the contract.

F. S. Rieder, County Clerk.

BURNS, OREGON.

UNDER THE GASLIGHT.

A play full of surprises, startling climaxes, good comedy and splendid scenic effects. Showing a train of cars crossing the stage at full speed, also the pier scene on East river, New York, introducing the News boys Quartet, and other specialties. The management has gone to extra expense and trouble to make this the best performance yet given by the Georgia Harper Co., who will be ably assisted by the local talent of Burns. Georgia Harper will play the part of Laura Courtland, in which role she has received much credit throughout the country. Miss Clare Swain and Julian Byrd will appear in important roles, also Mervin Horton will be "Peanuts" the bootblack. The play deals with high and low life of New York City, telling a touching story of strong heart interest, and many interesting and exciting scenes prevail during the action of the drama. At Locher's hall Sunday Night Aug. 16.
