

CHARLES M. SCHWAB

Who last week resigned as president of the big steel corporation.

Washington Post: If Mr. Cleveland makes the race against President Roosevelt next year, honors will be about even on the fall baby-carriage issue.

Vanity in a woman sinks to the bone and lasts as long as breath. Tsu An, Empress of China, is nearly 70 years old and ugly as sin, yet she wants an oil painting of herself.

When a man wakes in Kansas he thanks God that a flood didn't sweep him away in the night, and on going to bed thanks God that he wasn't caught in a cyclone during the day.—Oregonian.

A new game called Christianity is becoming quite popular with young folks. It takes two people to play the game, a boy and a girl. The girl gets on one side, she is the Christian; the boy gets on the other side, he is the Heathen. Then the Heathen embraces Christianity. It is a nice game; try it.—Ex.

Petitions are being gotten out at Silver Lake to be circulated throughout Lake, Klamath and Crook counties, protesting against the wholesale forest reserve in these counties. The petition is a good one, and should be signed by every one who is against the bottling up of this county as derogatory to the stock interests and the development of the county.—Lakeview Examiner.

Silver Lake, it is said, possesses the distinction of being farthest away from a railroad of any post office in the United States. While this may or may not be true, Silver Lake is 180 miles from Shanks by the mail route, and about 225 from Terro. From the nearest Southern Pacific station to Silver Lake it is easily 250 miles, and from Ashland via Lakeview, the mail route, it is not less than 400.—Bend Bulletin.

"Ah," he said to her over their ice cream, "it is very sweet, but not so sweet as you." "It is soft," she returned promptly, "but not so soft as you." "And it is cold," he concluded—"but not so cold as you."—Ex.

The Telegram printed a story about Mr. Ramsey, of Wilderville, or—was it Mr. Wilder, of Ramseyville?—who said that he had a tree in Josephine County that was half petrified and half green. The Eugene Guard says the man is a liar, flat-like. How far is it from Wilderville to Eugene?

Reflections of a Bachelor. Tightly laced, loosely paced. Two things a woman never can do naturally are to smoke cigarettes and cross her legs.

The woman who sets out to reform a man's morals generally ends up by deforming her own.

It is better for a man to fall in love with a woman older than he is than never to fall in love at all.—New York Press.
