Judge and Mrs H. C. Levens entertained a number of young people at their home last Saturday evening at whist, in honor of Frank Welcome. A most enjoyable evening was spent, refreshments being served. Chas. Lewis and Miss Clare Swain were awarded first prizes, Miss Maude Norton and Earl Sweek receiving the "boobies."

The young ladies of the basket ball club entertained their gentlemen friends last Wednesday with a progressive supper. Soup was served at the home of Mrs. Fitzgerald, salads at H C Smith's, dinner at Mrs. Dr. Burrow's, cocoa and cake at Mrs. Julien Byrd's, ice cream and cake at Mrs. Mace's. After this round it was found Frank Welcome and Father Doyle had eaten so much a team had to be provided to take the party to Mrs Dalton Biggs' home where they were served with bonbons and lemonade.

On complaint of Thomas Dawson, G. B. Norton and a woman named Trixie Russel were tried in Justice Miller's court Wednesday, on the charge of selling liquor without license in the Stein Mountain section. There was not sufficient evidence produced to hold the defendants and they were dismissed. It appears that there are several in the Stein Mountain country selling liquor, killing deer and raising "old Ned" in general, regardless of law, license, decency or anything else. In fact it has become so rotten that the officers are determined to clean the lawless element out and put them behind prison bars if possible, where they belong.

Ben Brown and family and Mrs. C. E. Kenyon and little son have returned from the mountains.

Rev. G. D. Doyle took his departure yesterday for Baker City. He expects to return the latter part of next week.

The Windsor, under the management of C. B. Smith & Co., is one of the most popular resorts in the interior. Finest of liquors and cigars, billiards and card tables and expert mixologists.

W. W. Brown, the Wagontire horseman, was in the city on business this week. The personal clipped from the Lakeview Examiner last week would indicate Mr Brown was a married man but he denies the charge.

The Red Front Barn is now under the management of Harry C. Smith where your stock will be well cared for. He has good, comfortable livery rigs and fresh horses.

MY PARTNER SUNDAY NIGHT

One of the most pleasing plays ever written will be given by the Georgia Harper, Co. at Locher's Hall next Sunday evening. The plot of the story is laid in California near Mt. Shasta, in the days of '49, before that section of the west had many railroads. It shows the honor which existed between the rough men of that time, who were seeking fortune in the gold fields of that state. Georgia Harper will play Mary Brandon a strong emotional part particularly suited to her ability. Julian Byrd will furnish amusement in the role of Wing Lee, and Miss Clare Swain will play Grace Bradon. The comedy is funny, the play is strong, and the cast unexcelled. New specialties will be given between the acts.

NOTICE FOR BIDS

Notice is hereby given that bids will be received by the County Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Harney, for the grading of certain parts of the County Roads of said county, viz:

LAWEN-NARROWS ROAD.

The first piece beginning about a quarter of a mile south of the residence of J. L. Sitz and about 100 feet north of the north end of present grade and running thence south 1200 feet to where the road turns west.

The second piece beginning about a quarter of a mile west of the terminus of the first piece and running West and South for a distance of 1000 feet to the North end of the grade built in the fall of 1902.

The third piece beginning at the West end of the grade built in the fall of 1902, on the west of Silvie's River, between the lands of F. Crowley and the P. L. S. Co., and running a distance of 2000 feet.

FENWICK LANE ROAD

Road Grade and Bridges, beginning at the south end of the Lane and extending for a distance of 8000 feet to the north end of the lane.

There will be available for payment on said contracts, for the Lawen-Narrows Road $1000.00 and for the Fenwick Lane Road, $600.00 out of the Road Fund, this year, balance, if contracts are completed this fall, to be paid by warrants redeemable in the spring of 1904.

Specifications for said proposed work are now on file at my office. Bids will be opened and considered on Thursday, September 3, 1903, at 1 o'clock P. M.

The Court will award the contracts to the lowest bidder, reserving the right to reject any and all bids if they deem them too high.

Each bid shall be accompanied by a bond, signed by two or more freeholders, in double the amount of the bid, as surties, made payable to the county for the faithful performance of the contract.

F. S. Rieder,
County Clerk.

Frank Welstone and Ernest Shields left yesterday in company with Ike Schwartz for the railroad route to Quincy, Ill., where they will spend the coming winter in school. These two young men are among the best and most popular in this section and whose friends wish them a pleasant as well as profitable winter in the East.

Dr. L. E. Hibbard and his clerks, T. R. and G. D. Hibbard turned the first of the week from their outing in the Stein Mountains to the latter have since taken their departure for the Willamette valley. The Times-Herald was remembered upon the return of party from the excursion to the wilds of the mountains in the of some fresh game. Dr. Hibbard never fails to remember his friends on such occasions.

At her home in Burns, Sunday, Aug. 16, 1903, Mrs. Effie Syne, age 31 years. The lady had been in poor health for several weeks, but her condition was not considered serious until the day of her death. The immediate cause of her death was perforation of the bowels caused by typhoid fever. Mrs. Syne had been a resident of this place for several years, where her sunny disposition and kind-hearted interest in her neighbors and associates won her many warm friends. The funeral took place from her late home Monday afternoon, Rev. A. J. Irwin conducting the services in the presence of a large gathering of friends, the body being laid to rest in the Burns cemetery. Deceased was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Dickenson, of Lawen, and was born in Grayson County, Va., Aug. 8, 1872. The parents moved to Oregon the same year. She was married to H. B. Syne at Prineville in 1889. Besides her parents one sister, Mrs. M. S. Kern, a brother, Guy E. Dickenson and her three children, William, Carl and Rosa survive her.
