

S. & B. CASH STORE,

The Popular place to do your Trading.

QUALITY, QUANTITY & PRICE

Are essential to filling orders large or small As to quality we will let you be the judge. We buy the Best only. Our stock is most complete in every detail and our prices the lowest—considering highest Quality.

Our shelves are stocked with

NEW FRESH DRY GOODS

and

WEARING APPAREL

of all descriptions. Outing flannels in light and dark—Daisy flannels, soft silk finish—Storm flannels, extra heavy—All wool suitings in gray, brown and black—Wool and cotton waistings in new shades and designs

Ladies', Misses and Children's

Coats and Jackets.....

Circular Shawls--Ladies and

Misses Underwear, Etc., Etc.

COMFORTERS.

We have bought a large quantity of them before the advance and can save you money on them. We also carry the Best

ALL WOOL BLANKETS

Made by the Thos. Kay Woolen Mills

Mail Orders Will Receive Prompt Attention.

SCHWARTZ & BUDELMAN.

The Times-Herald

Kodaks and cameras at Jorgensen's.

THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY NEWSPAPER IN THIS COUNTY.

M. Horton is over from Diamond on business.

Local News.

Mince pies and doughnuts a specialty—at the bakery.

L. B. Springer was in from Diamond this week.

Sewing machine needles, machine oil, gun oil at Jorgensen's.

Mrs. D. H. Smith and daughters, Mrs. Tie Shull and Miss Myrtle, are in from Happy valley.

Mrs. C. A. Byrd has received her fall consignment of millinery and trimmed hats.

C. J. Freeman and wife were in from Warm Spring yesterday, returning today.

If you want a good enjoyable smoke go to the Welcome Pharmacy and get one of those nice pipes.

C. W. McClain informs us he will spend the winter in Idaho where he has contracted work on a big irrigation canal.

"The Woodman of the World," a $3.50 Shoe for Gentlemen, manufactured by Buckingham & Hecht. Sold by Lunenburg & Dalton.

Geer and Cummins are having a large shed built in Mr. Geer's barn yard in which to store their machinery, wagons, etc. for the winter.

Mrs. Seth Bower and daughter, Miss Alma, were down from the thriving little city of Harney the first of the week transacting business.

SAY—You save money and time by ordering your suits and overcoats from Friedrich the Tailor they fit, and must fit. Any alteration that may occur free of charge. Friedrich the Tailor, Burns, Ore.

P. G. Smith took his departure Tuesday with some 300 head of cattle for the railroad. If prices are right he will dispose of them this fall, if not he has bought hay near Arcadia and will winter them there.

Chas. Frasier, a former resident of this county, spent several days in this city this week, having come in for the purpose of securing his naturalization papers. Chas left here when the rush was made to the Alaska gold fields and he was among the fortunate ones to come out with some money. He is now located on Salmon river, Idaho. His friends will be pleased to learn that Chas. expects to lead a bride to the altar next week.

Clocks and jewelry at reduced prices at Jorgensen's.

Oregon Made Blankets at N. Brown & Sons.

Jas. Pirie was in from Cow creek Thursday.

Queen Quality Shoes at N. Brown & Sons.

Try Robbins' Hair Tonic at the Capitol Barber Shop.

Nice salt Salmon at 15c lb—this season's catch—at Huston's.

Young men wanting cake or pie can be supplied at the bakery.

Dr. Horton is down to Narrows looking after affairs on his ranch.

See the Lace Window Curtains at the Furniture Store Nothing nicer.

W. T. Hill and son Ora were up from their home a day or two this week.

Artistic crepe paper for fancy work, in roll or flat at Jorgensen's cheap.

The most extensive stock of Clothing and mens Furnishings at N. Brown & Sons.

Boston Brown Bread with baked beans Sunday Morning at the New Bakery.

Dr. J. W. Vogel, an eye specialist, has been a guest at the Cottage the past few days.

Preparations are being made for a grand ball on Thanksgiving. Watch for particulars later.

Robbins' Hair Tonic is guaranteed to stop the hair from falling. Get a bottle at the Capitol Barber Shop.

If it isn't convenient to call at the shop order your roast for dinner by phone from the City Meat Market.

Many have been brought in from different sections of the county on special venires for jury duty this week.

Order your meat by telephone from the City Meat Market and it will be delivered promptly.

Try our Roasted Coffee at 20c per pound equal to the coffee you pay 35c and 40c per pound—N. Brown & Sons.

A sure cure for dandruff—Robbins' Hair Tonic. It will also keep the hair from drying out. At Capitol Barber Shop.

T. F. Arnold, one of our respected ranchers of the Pine creek section, was looking after business affairs in this city Tuesday.

All kinds of dry lumber now on hand at the A. K. Richardson sawmill. Also stair railing, window stool, etc.

Among the late arrivals from the southern part of the county on court matters are Robt. Doan, W. J. Sisson and Chas. Fields.

Phone the City Meat Market for anything needed in the line of meat, lard, etc, and have it delivered immediately.

Ray Smith assisted by several other carpenters is rushing the interior of the John Gemberling stone business house to completion.

R. F. Putzien, a nephew of F. C. Sels of Canyon City, was over from that place Tuesday, returning next day. The young man was here on business.

Our stock of iron beds is now complete and at very reasonable prices. Call and see our folding beds, steel couches, etc.—Burns Furniture Co.

Cecil Riley, the prince of good fellows, is again circulating among his numerous friends in this city, having arrived from his home the first of the week. Cecil is here on land business.

The light snow fall of Thursday morning did no harm and has perhaps helped along the range. Snow fell just one day earlier this year than last, according to H. E. Thompson who keeps tab on the weather.

The children of the Presbyterian Sunday School, will give a social at the business College on the evening of Nov. 20, the proceeds to go toward building a primary Sunday school room. All are invited to attend. Admission 10 cents.

Ah Ben, who for many years has conducted a laundry in this city, took his departure the first of the week for the Flowery Kingdom where he goes to visit his son and daughter. It was generally known that Ben was married. His wife died not long ago and he goes to look after his children. He will be absent some time.

Comb honey at Huston's.

Up-to-date job printing at reasonable prices.

Fur Stoles and Fur Scarfs for Ladies at N. Brown & Sons.

Orders filled for lemon pies and fancy cakes at the bakery.

Carpets Art Squares and Rugs at N. Brown & Sons.

Try Tree Brand of Tea. A sample package free at N. Brown & Sons.

The new bakery just started by Mrs. Robbins fills a long felt want and she is getting the patronage she deserves.

Call and see the fall and winter samples and fashions for ladies suits, coats and jackets. At Mrs. Chas. Wilson's.

A. C. Brotherton informs us he will go to the Chas. Peterson ranch next week where he has obtained work for the winter.

"The Woodman of the World," a $3.50 Shoe for Gentlemen, manufactured by Buckingham & Hecht. Sold by Lunenburg & Dalton.

The new hay scales recently installed at the Lewis & Garrett livery barn have been found to be very accurate and satisfactory.

Mrs. Henry Anderson and Mr. Edward Hollenbeck desire to thank the friends who so kindly assisted and extended their sympathy during their recent bereavement.

W. R. Rutherford took his departure the first of this week with his father's cattle which he had gathered on the range to take to the Snake River where the Judge is now located.

It was reported on the streets yesterday evening that Pat Moore, the murderer of George Simpson, had been captured by Chas. Rann in Colorado. Careful inquiry was made and it was found to be a mistake.

E. H. Meade, the jolly comedian and successful (?) rancher, is in the city where he will spend the winter. He will organize a troupe and give our people some good entertainments during the long winter evenings. Hurry 'em up Ed.

We carry the Wales Goodyear pure gum Rubber Boots and Shoes. N. Brown & Sons.

A fire alarm was turned in Wednesday shortly afternoon a fire having started in the fence and woodpile just back of John Gemberling's Jeweler store. It was soon extinguished. The fire caught from the stump of cigar carelessly thrown under the edge of the fence in such a way as to create a draft.

Studebaker Wagons, Hacks, Carriages, Buggies and Buckboards are arriving now and selling as fast as we can get them in. We have two car loads of these goods here and in trains. The best stock of Wagons and Vehicles ever brought to Burns. Call and look at goods even if you do not desire to buy at the present time. Geer & Cummins.

Judge Levens, who looks after the interests of the City Meat Market while not on duty at the court house killed a number of fat porkers this week. The family of the man behind the gun in this office was treated to some nice spare-ribs and back-bone for which accept our thanks. It's seldom a newspaper man has such a feast, so pardon us for mentioning it.

Rev. A. J. Irwin is to be installed pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Burns on Nov. 15th. The commission of the Lord's Supper will be observed at 11 A. M. Also the ordinance of baptism will be administered to children at the same hour. The installation service will take place in the evening. All the friends of the church are urged to attend these services; and a most cordial invitation is extended to the general public.

Job printing—The Times-Herald

TAX LAW INVALID

Salem, Oct. 31—The supreme court today affirmed the decision of the circuit court of Multnomah county holding a tax levy cannot be made under the existing laws next January. This means a special session of the legislature before January, to pass a law to authorize the levy, or state, county, city and school district warrants must be indorsed "not paid for want of funds." The governor has stated that he will refuse to call a special session unless the public finances require it.

"BROWN'S" "THE SATISFACTORY STORE" "BROWN'S"

TO SHOPPERS OF MERCHANDISE.

When you hire a doctor to attend to your family, or retain a lawyer to look after your interests, you do not select one with a small practice, but one whose skill and success has built up a large clientele.

Why not apply the same common-sense principle in selecting a place to make your purchases? There, too, a large and growing business is proof positive of satisfactory services rendered to customers.

We are showing a large and complete stock of Fall and Winter Merchandise and are ready to serve you.

DRESS GOODS--in all the new fabrics and at unmatched low prices.

CLOAKS, JACKETS AND FURS--Do not buy your outer Winter garments until you have seen ours. We have never had anything to compare with them at anything near the prices.

BLANKETS, QUILTS, SPREADS, SHEETS AND FLANNELS--On these goods we make special efforts to undersell all competitors

Ribbons, Lace, Gloves and Hosiery--In the new styles for fall and winter. The best grades that can possibly be produced to sell at the prices we ask.

We Give Trading Stamps.

AGENTS FOR

Queen Quality Shoes, Seal's Kid Gloves, McCall Patterns, Royal Tailors, Chase & Sanborn Coffee.

Exclusive styles in Ladies, Misses and Childrens Jackets at N. Brown and Sons

The writer has tried Robbins' Hair Tonic and found it all that was recommended.

Holiday Games FREE

Inside each pound package of Lion Coffee will be found a FREE game. 60 different games. All new. At Your Grocer's.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION. UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE. BURNS, ORE., October 31, 1904. Notice is hereby given that the following named settlers have filed notice of intention to make final proof on their respective claims before the Register and Receiver at Burns, Oregon on November 15, 1904.

CHAS. B. SMITH. H. E. No. 170, for SW 1/4, NW 1/4, Sec. 4, T. 20 N., R. 22 E., W. 1/2, South of Malheur Lake. JOHN H. SMITH. H. E. No. 170, for SW 1/4, NW 1/4, Sec. 4, T. 20 N., R. 22 E., W. 1/2, South of Malheur Lake. They name the following witnesses to prove their continuous residence upon, and cultivation of said land, viz: Alvin G. Foster and Henry Lindroth, of Veneta, Oregon; Bruce Pollock, Chester B. Smith and Joel H. Smith, all of Burns, Oregon. Wm. Faxon, Register.

HOPKINS & GARRETT are still at the old stand and still making those fine saddles that have become so popular with the riders of this section. Write them for anything in the line of harness, saddles, chaps, bridles etc, if not convenient to call. They are the sole agents in this county for Security Stock Remo dye.

RESERVED FOR—MILLER & THOMPSON.
They will have something to say next week.

BICYCLES! BICYCLES!
Guaranteed for One Year.

High Grade Wheels Prices $20 to $35.

If its Wheels you want, I'm your Hucklebarr!

JOHN GEMERLING, Burns, Oregon.

HUSTON'S IS THE PLACE
Groceries, Grain, Flour
Tropical and Domestic Fruits when in Season.
Provisions and Feed a Specialty.

All kinds of Fresh Vegetables in Season, Darkmeier Building, Main Street.

The White Front Livery Stable
LEWIS & McHARGUE, Propts.

New and Elegant Livery Turnouts Complete. Fresh Teams
Horses boarded by the day, week or month. Special care given all stock
Special accommodations for Commercial Men
Cor. and B Sts., Burns, Oregon.