JULIAN BYRD - - - - - Manager

In his message last Monday, President Roosevelt mentioned the Lewis and Clark Fair very favorably and recommended that it be recognized by the government.

Although the term of circuit court just ended has been the most expensive for some time, the results have been gratifying and will be the cause of lighter terms no doubt, in future.

A canvass among leaders of the local butchers discloses the fact that no reduction of meats on the block has been made in this city. Although beef on foot is selling for but little over one-half what it was worth a year ago, beef on the block remains the same old price. The farmer and cattle raiser receive but about 60 per cent of the usual price for their stock, yet the consumer gets no benefit from this reduction in the price of cattle. -East Oregonian.

"To run a newspaper," says an Oklahoma editor, "all a fellow has to do to be able to write poems, discuss the tariff and money question, umpire a baseball game, describe a fire, so that the readers will shed their wraps, make a dollar do the work of ten, shine at a dance, measure calico, abuse the liquor habit, test whiskey, subscribe to charity, go without meals, attack free silver, defend bimetallism, sneer at snobbery, wear diamonds, invent advertisements, overlook scandal, praise babies, delight pumpkin raisers, minister to the afflicted, heal the disgruntled, fight to a finish, set type, mold opinions, sweep the office, speak at prayer meeting, stand in with everybody and everything." -New York Tribune.

"Arrangements have been completed for an extension of the Columbia Southern Railroad into Central Oregon next year."

"The Oriental service of the Portland and Asiatic Steamship Company will be increased to meet the demands of the port."

"Modern equipment will be added to the Southern Pacific's Oregon line as fast as the track can be improved to stand the heavier rolling stock."

"The building of the portage road is not opposed by the O. R. & N. The history of transportation the world over shows that the opening of waterways has increased the traffic of the railroads traversing the same territory."

"I am a corporate citizen of Portland and am willing at all times to do all in my power to aid the growth and development of the city and state."

"The star attraction to draw people to the Lewis and Clark fair is your magnificent scenery and wonderful resources. Keep them before the people."

The above are a few remarks of E. H. Harriman during his visit to Portland the first of this week.

HELD UNDER BONDS.

Last Tuesday John Hog went to the Charles Nelson place after a load of hay, he having bought a portion of a stack and when he started to load his wagon found the top to be worthless, rotten stuff which he threw to one side. He claims that Chas. Nelson came out with a shot gun and told him to load it on his wagon. Mr. Hog told him he had no use for it but Nelson threatened to use the shot-gun. Hog caught the gun and according to his statement they struggled for more than an hour and a half before the weapon was discharged and Mr. Hog felt safe.

Hog left the place immediately, leaving his team and wagon and came to town with the barrels of the gun which he had succeeded in wrenching from Nelson. Those who saw the barrels say the gun must have been discharged while the muzzle was stuck in the ground, as the end was blown off.

District Attorney Miller at once filed an information against Nelson charging him with assault with a deadly weapon. He was placed under $1000 bonds with Chas. Newell and wife and W. W. Johnson as sureties, to appear at the next term of circuit court.
