Born—Thursday, Jan 7, to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Elliott of Harney, a boy. Dr Geary, the attending physician, reports mother and son doing well.

Judge Sparrow received a telegram Thursday morning announcing the death of his aged mother at Royalton, Minn. While it was not unexpected, former messages announced her condition for several days previous, it was nevertheless a sad blow. Judge Sparrow is himself in rather poor health and was unable to go to his mother. He has the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in this county, where he has lived for so many years in pleasant business and social relations with the people. The lady was 83 years old.

At the regular annual business meeting of the First Presbyterian church of this city last Wednesday evening A. S. Swain was elected trustee for a term of three years and Dr. Hibbard was re-elected treasurer. The report from the various boards showed the church to be in an excellent condition, all debts being paid and a handsome balance on hand. It was decided to improve the church property by fencing it and putting up a windmill. The money is on hand for this purpose we are glad to learn. Rev Irwin will have his hands full the coming summer getting a nice lawn started—a very good move.

Messrs Chas Wilson and Geo. Ashton have bought the blacksmith business formerly owned by J. J. Tupker and are ready to serve the many customers of the concern. Success boys.

At a meeting of the city dads the first of the week the city marshal was ordered to serve notice on saloons to stop selling liquor to habitual drunkards, under penalty of forfeiting their bonds.

Eddie Egli accompanied Dr. Marsden to Portland where he will have his eyes examined by a specialist. He expects to be able to return when the Dr. and other delegates come back from the irrigation convention.

Mrs. Wm Farre took her departure Wednesday for Canyon City where she will visit relatives for an indefinite length of time. Billy says batching is alright if one has a dog and don't have to wash dishes.

Frank Welcome, who has been attending school at Quincy, Ill., will leave that place for Burns today. Frank has been in poor health almost all the time since leaving here and his physician advised a change. His many young friends will be pleased to have him again among them.

Joe Tupker is now on the retired list, for the present at least, and his blacksmith days are over, so he hopes. Joe worked at the business faithfully for many years and now hopes to go at something that won't draw so much sweat. He is considering the proposition of starting a dairy farm in the spring. The Times-Herald feels this would be a most excellent move and a money making business. Don't change your mind Joe.
