The delegates from this county to the republican state conventions were in something of a sweat when they left here for the scene of battle, as they considered themselves instructed for Wm. Miller for district attorney and J. L. Sitz for joint-representative. Up to the time of their departure it was not known whether Mr. Miller had been endorsed by his own county or not, and they feared it might complicate matters, as Mr. Hope, of Vale, would like the nomination for representative and Malheur has five delegates to this county's four. If Harney county insisted on Mr. Miller's nomination for district attorney against the wishes of Malheur, they might take a notion and nominate their choice for representative.

A press dispatch from Portland under date of April 2, says: The federal grand jury which has been in session for two weeks completed its work today and was discharged after returning six indictments and drafting a strong letter to the secretary of the interior denouncing the present land laws, especially the lieu land law and to the evidences of corruption among land office officials and others as a direct result. Attention is especially directed to the frauds in Oregon and a strong appeal is made for a change in the laws to prevent further corruption.

During its term the grand jury has returned 15 indictments.

From the Oregonian we learn that M. A. Moody has carried Eastern Oregon and is quite likely to be the republican nominee for congress again. Although the machine men in Multnomah county have been doing their best to keep the delegates in Portland in line for Mr. Williamson and threatened any who go to Moody with political oblivion, calling them traitors, etc., there are several who have given out their intention to vote for the latter and take chances on the hereafter part of the deal. They should be commended for their manhood in coming out boldly for their choice regardless of the consequences.

The Direct Primary law will be placed on the ballot to be cast on June 6th, and it is the duty of every voter to secure a copy of this law and study it out for himself, and not rely upon its recommendation by any faction or party. The bill is at your disposal, and there is no reason why you should go to the poles unqualified to cast an intelligent vote on this subject. —Lakeview Examiner.

He was indicted last fall by the grand jury charged with butchering a steer belonging to the P. L. S. Co. The case was continued until the spring term with the above results.

Several hundred head of P. L. S. Co. cattle were driven out from the Island ranch last Sunday and taken to the range. While bringing the stock up through the lane east of this place several weak ones got down in the mud necessitating their being killed to put them out of their misery. About 20 head were lost.

Football Sunday Afternoon.

The boys have been practicing for the past week for a game of football to be played at the fair ground tomorrow afternoon. This will be a treat to the sport loving people of Burns and no doubt a large crowd will be in attendance.

A football game is not an every day occurrence in these parts and from indications it will be a good game tomorrow as the teams are equally matched. Some of them are new hands at the business but most have been on the grid iron before and will put up a fast game. Following is the line up:

Buying Range Horses.

J. A. Jackson arrived here last Saturday for the purpose of buying several hundred head of range horses. The gentleman informed the Times-Herald he will be able to secure a large number in this county and that gathering from the range would begin within two weeks. The animals he desires are those weighing from 900 to 1200 pounds and we are informed his prices are very satisfactory.

It has been fortunate for horsemen that there has been a demand for this class of stock the past few years, as it enables them to dispose of them at a good figure and will rid the range of many thousand head of heretofore profitless stock that took the grass from more valuable stock.

It will also be a benefit in respect to breeding a better class of horses such as will always find a ready market at big prices.

Accidentally Shot.

While preparing to move his household goods last Monday Notie Oard accidentally shot himself with a shot gun causing a very serious wound in his right arm. While attempting to place the weapon on the wagon it fell and was discharged the whole load taking effect in his arm above the elbow. Fortunately no bones were broken but the flesh and muscle were almost entirely torn away.

He was brought to this city in company with his wife and Drs. Marsden & Geary dressed the injury. The young man is now at the county Hospital where he is receiving the best of care and treatment. It is hoped the accident will have no lasting effect on the usefulness of his arm, but at present this is not known.

Anyone desiring a carpenter or cabinet work should call on Honory Dansereau. Shop at his residence opposite M. Fitz Gerald's.
