Comb honey at Huston's. Constant is in the city. Alfalfa at Geer & Cummins. Johnson is up to his ranch. ... See Voegtly's ad. Garden seeds at Voegtly's. Supt. Bartlett left Thursday afternoon for Drewsey, accompanied by Joe Lamb. I. L. Poudjate and wife were the guests of relatives in this city a day or two this week. Now is your opportunity to seed your place with alfalfa. Geer & Cummins have a fine lot of seed. Anyone desiring a carpenter or cabinet work should call on Honory Dansereau. Shop at his residence opposite M. Fitz Gerald's. Dr. Marsden was called to Crane creek Monday to see F. G. Stauffer who was suffering from pneumonia. He left the patient improving. W. L. Best, republican candidate for county commissioner spent a few days in our city this week. He was accompanied by Mrs. Best. The recent cold snap has had a tendency to check the rapid melting snow in the mountains, thereby causing the water to fall a little. Dr. H. S. Brownton, who was summoned here last week as a witness in the Miller case, has returned to Prarie City on account of the illness of his wife. W. D. Hanley was confined to his bed for several days the latter part of last week. He was unable to attend the State Cattle Grower's meeting at Portland Saturday on that account. While the big lot of water that is now covering everything in sight all over the valley is just what we want, it nevertheless has its drawbacks as the roads are almost impossible in certain sections. Stages have been arriving at frequent intervals the past week, but very little mail matter has been brought in on account of floods and washouts on the railroad lines. It works a hardship on this great religious weekly, as local happenings are very few. E. Jacobson, the popular J. K. Gill Co. salesman, spent the fore part of the week with us looking after the business of his house and incidentally taking orders for pianos. He was accompanied by Arthur Stubling, of The Dalles, who represents a wholesale liquor house in that city. The snow fall on April 20 looked as though winter was again with us, but has resulted in being a great benefit to the foothill range, as it had begun to bake on account of the warm sunshine on the exceptionally wet soil. The snow which melted almost as rapidly as it fell softened up the surface so that the bunch grass will grow better. The Sweek home was invaded last Wednesday by the most picturesque lot of little (?) waifs ever seen in one collection in this city. It was a baby party and dainty little cherubs dressed in various ways with pink stockings, etc. were much in evidence. Some of the little things stood 5 feet 8 inches in their stocking feet their weights varied from 110 to 160 pounds. Refreshments consisted of bread and milk and possibly nursing bottles for aught the writer knows. It was a decided success at least and was participated in by some 16 young ladies of our city who played they were babies again. THE MONUMENTAL BRONZE COMPANY, of Bridgeport, Conn., has appointed M. L. Lewis, their agent for Harney County. This old reliable company makes all kinds of Monuments, Grave Covers, Corner posts Vases and Urns, out of pure refined Zinc, which is one of the elementary or virgin metals, the same as gold and silver, and is indestructible and cannot be affected by the climatic conditions. These monuments are cheaper by half than any kind of stone, more beautiful in design and cannot be broken. Mr. Lewis desires all who are contemplating the purchase of anything in this line to call on him at the office of Biggs & Biggs, and see designs sample of material and get prices. On sets 7 pounds for a $1 at Voegtly's. Up-to-date job printing at reasonable prices. C. Beary is again up from his ranch at Narrows. Ike Holland paid a visit to the Island ranch the first of the week. Sheep men are having difficulty in securing help for the lambing season. Don't delay getting a good supply of alfalfa seed, Geer and Cummins have it for sale. Chas. Parrish Jr. came over from Canyon City Thursday, bringing a gentleman by the name of Hunter. Byron Terrill and family now occupy their residence in this city. Byron has been improving some, laying sidewalk, etc. and looking out for a few votes between acts as a specialty. Geo. Waters has gone out to the shearing corrals on Stein mountain for the purpose of getting the shearing plant in readiness for the season's work which will begin about May 5. The ordinance requiring that flues be built will be looked after strictly in the near future and residents are hereby notified that they will be compelled to make the necessary changes to conform with the requirements of the ordinance. M. L. Lewis, Fire Warden. Ralph Feeney, of Portland, spent a few days in our city this week taking his departure this morning for Drewsey. The gentleman is making a tour of this part of the state visiting A. O. U. W. lodges, trying to increase the membership and also instituting new lodges. He reports very good success. Mrs. W. E. Trisch entertained a number of the young people of this city at her home last Saturday night in honor of her brother, Richard Donegan. A very enjoyable evening was spent at whist Miss Bertha Williams and L. E. Wing carried off the honors while Will McKinnie and Mrs. H. C. Levens were awarded the consolation prizes. DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL FUNCTION. Mrs. Isaac Schwartz and Mrs. W. E. Trisch entertained most elaborately at the former's beautiful home in this city last Thursday afternoon. The rooms were most handsomely decorated in red white and blue and the tables similarly decked to correspond. The guests were received by several of our popular young ladies and given a walnut shell in which was found a number which corresponded with another. In this way the positions and partners were found for the progressive whist game that followed. Instead of score cards small bags were used in which small candy beans were dropped for every point won. During the time lunch was served Dennis' orchestra rendered several selections. Later Miss Bertha Williams sang Columbia. Miss Vella Mace also rendered some instrumental selections. The lady having the highest score at each table was given a beautiful souvenir shell pin tray with a small American flag painted inside. Mrs. N. U. Carpenter was awarded first prize, a very beautiful silver bon bon dish. The consolation prize was given to Mrs. Woldenberg Sr., a pair of beaded Indian baby moccasins with a card bearing the inscription "De Feet". The party was certainly the most pronounced and elite affair of the season and one long to be remembered by the numerous friends of the popular hostesses. Those present were: Mesdames Carpenter, Woldenberg Sr., Woldenberg Jr. Gowan, Farre, Holland, McKinney, Parrington, Sweek, Mothershead, Parvin, Kelley, Marsden, Geary, Mace, Shelley, Foley, C. A. Byrd, Julian Byrd, Gember-

ling, Hopkins, Welcome, Levens, Hanley, Jackson, Geer, Rembold, Waters, Riggs, Williams, Thompson, Buoy, Donegan, Misses Mace, Shelley, Sweek, Williams, Swain. GEO. MILLER ON TRIAL. The trial of Geo. Miller for the killing of Warren Curtis began yesterday afternoon in the circuit court, the last two jurors having been secured immediately after the noon recess. The taking of testimony was at once begun. The state is represented by Dist. Atty. Miller assisted by Judge Webster. The defense is being looked after by Weatherford & Wyatt, of Albany, and Geo. Sizemore. The trial will last probably until next Tuesday. Several witnesses having been excused to go home will now return. Owing to the nature of the case it was a hard matter to secure a jury and it looked as though the tax roll would be exhausted. The trial jury is made up of the following taxpayers: E. A. Stone, Chas. Wilson, F. C. Dibble, S. E. Tyler, A. J. Johnson, L. Shepard, L. C. Bradfield, J. W. Miller, J. I. Cavender, E. P. Sylvester, Rodney Buckmaster, J. A. Turner. CALL FOR COUNTY WARRANTS.
