Dr. Marsden is over at Agency Valley, having been called on professional business.

M. N. Fegly of Red Butte, was in the city last evening and registered at the Carter House.—Ontario Argus.

Lon Richardson is looking after his political interests in this city today and attending to some private business.

Mrs. C. A. Byrd has a nice stock of hats at the railroad which she expects as soon as the stage will bring them.

James Donegan arrived home Tuesday from Portland where he had been to attend the republican state convention.

G. W. Clevenger and Newt Hoover have returned home from Portland where they went as delegates to the republican conventions.

Among the candidates that took in the Drewsey section this week were Byron Terrill, J. E. Logan, J. C. Welcome Jr., J. M. Dalton, Sam Mothershead, E. B. Waters, A. K. Richardson and Dr. Volp. Some of them have returned while others extended their tour to other points.

County Clerk Rieder has returned from Portland where he represented Harney County in the democratic state convention. Frank is quite enthusiastic politically and is especially pleased with the nominee for joint-representative, C. W. Mallett. He considers that gentleman very able and feels that should be elected he would be in a position to do much for his constituents. Mr. Rieder had a very pleasant vacation and is again at his post in the clerk's office.

The family of Dist. Atty. Miller arrived here last Monday from Ontario and are visiting friends in this city. Judge Miller informs us he is thinking seriously of again taking up his residence in this city where he would practice law. Being a county seat town and the land office here he considers Burns has advantages over Ontario for his particular line of work.

N. U. Carpenter is having the sage brush grubbed off his farm east of Burns with the intention of seeding 100 acres to wheat and oats this season if possible. He will get in 60 acres anyway. This will be an experiment to a certain extent, as it is sage brush land and cannot be irrigated, although water can be held near the surface a portion of the growing season. This will demonstrate the practicability of such land for farming purposes and be an object lesson to doubting ones.

THE MONUMENTAL BRONZE COMPANY, of Bridgeport, Conn., has appointed M. L. Lewis, their agent for Harney County. This old reliable company makes all kinds of Monuments, Grave Covers, Corner posts Vases and Urns, out of pure refined Zinc, which is one of the elementary or virgin metals, the same as gold and silver, and is indestructible and cannot be affected by the climatic conditions. These monuments are cheaper by half than any kind of stone, more beautiful in design and cannot be broken. Mr. Lewis desires all who are contemplating the purchase of anything in this line to call on him at the office of Biggs & Biggs, and see designs sample of material and get prices.
