China Tom has opened a restaurant and bakery in the rear of the Windsor. He has bread, pie, cake, doughnuts for sale. Call in the City Drug store as you are passing and see the new stock—H. M. Horton proprietor. John Gemberling and James Smith went out to Poison Creek yesterday to catch a few trout. They expect to return today. We will sell you anything in the line of farming machinery at prices and terms that defy competition. Please call and get prices and terms Geer & Cummins. The O. C. Co. are always right as to prices and quality, don't forget this when you are arranging to place your spring orders. Mrs. Tom Allen took her departure the first of the week for Portland where she goes to attend the O. E. S. grand lodge. The O. C. Co. have just received ten loads of goods, consisting of Bain and Winona wagons, barb wire, blacksmith coal, furniture, nails, cal oil, sugar, meats and White Rose flour. Ben Brown and family anticipate a trip to San Francisco in the near future, leaving here within the next two weeks. Do you want to buy your goods right, at the lowest prices of the O. C. Co. who are the largest buyers, and the closest sellers, best quality. Len Walton arrived here last Tuesday, having come over from John Day with Henry Blackwell. Len will perhaps make his home with us again. County Clerk Rieder issued a marriage license this afternoon to Loyd C. Epperson and Mrs. E. E. Thomson, both of the southern part of the county. Dr. Marsden was called to Crane Creek last Sunday afternoon to see Mrs. C. A. Bonnett. He reports the lady suffering from spotted fever and he left her improving. T. S. Sullivan is spending a few days in our city this week, having come over from Diamond Tuesday. He was accompanied by Mrs. M. Horton and little daughter who is visiting relatives and friends. Little Mildred Mothershead stepped on a piece of glass while playing last Monday afternoon, cutting her foot quite severely. The doctor found it necessary to take several stitches to close the wound, but she is doing well. Ransom Drake was accompanied over from Calamity by his wife and another lady the other day. The two latter were here to have some dental work done and Mr. Drake brought in the election returns. We are informed that Mrs. J. E. Roberts and children arrived here last Friday evening from Caldwell, Idaho, and is at present visiting relatives in this county. The lady was formerly Miss Carrie Cawfield. John McMullen and John Biggs visited the shearing plant at the Jenkins Bros ranch in Happy valley the latter part of last week. Mac took several pictures of the crew and plant as well as other interesting views while on the trip.

Alberson and Bent Embree are in from the southern part of the county, having brought in election returns from that section. See the new machinery ad of C. H. Voegtly on another page. Piano machinery does its own selling, almost. All that is necessary is to call attention to it. Judge Miller and wife and Mrs. N. U. Carpenter left Tuesday for Ontario. The two little daughters of the former remained here with their aunt, Mrs. Wm. Farré. FOR RENT OR SALE—A saloon and fixtures for rent or sale at a reasonable price and terms. For further particulars apply to L. N. Olson, Drewsey, Ore. Dr. J. W. Geary took his departure yesterday morning for Portland where he goes on private business and also to attend the A. F. & A. M. grand lodge. Rev. James Howard, a brother of Lite Howard, preached at the Baptist church here last Tuesday evening. He was on his way home from a visit to Lite over in Malheur county. The Windsor, under the management of C. B. Smith & Co., is one of the most popular resorts in the interior. Finest of liquors and cigars, billiards and card tables and expert mixologists. The past two nights have been severe on gardens, many of them being injured by frost. It is learned, however, that several gardens in this vicinity were not injured but little and some not at all. N. Brown, the old pioneer merchant, arrived home last Monday from San Francisco. Mr. Brown had been absent for some time. He is looking well and says he is well pleased to be again among his old time friends. He was met at the railroad by his son Leon. T. J. Shields and family came over from their Silver creek home yesterday and are the guests of relatives and friends in this city. Mr. Shields informs us his son Ernest will soon finish his school at Quincy, Ill., and would visit the fair at St. Louis before coming home. James Hutchinson arrived home last Monday from a trip to Alberta where he went to look at the country with a view of locating. He expressed himself to The Times-Herald as being very favorably impressed with that section and will likely move there, although he has not fully decided. Robt Reed and Chas Curl will leave today for the mountains where they accompany the latter's father Tom Curl. Mr. Curl recently had his leg amputated and although he has been improving they hope he will be benefited by the mountain air and outdoor living. They expect to spend a good portion of the summer in the mountains. Sam Mothershead has chosen John O. Cawfield as his deputy in the clerk's office. Mr. Cawfield is an old time resident of the county and has been identified with the democratic party all his life. He was a most ardent supporter of Mr. Mothershead during the campaign just closed and this without any thought of reward. A more popular or deserving selection could not have been made.

Are you going to the Railroad if so do not forget the O. C. Co. E. B. Waters has gone up to Tim Donovan's to take a rest after his campaign work. Isaac Foster was in the city Tuesday having brought in the election returns. C. H. Leonard is spending a good portion of his time superintending work on his ranches. Carpenters and painters are making many improvements on Mrs. Jones' resident property. Mrs. Alice Clark and children will soon take their departure for Salem where they will take up their residence. Miss Alice Hamilton has closed a very successful term of school in Diamond valley and is expected home immediately. Quite a number of freight teams arrived from the railroad today. Some of them were loaded for C. A. Haines at Narrows. J. C. Freeman and wife were over from Warm springs a day or two. Mr. Freeman was a witness for M. V. Baker in his land proof. Rev. Louis Hoff has been unable to work for the past week, suffering from stomach trouble. He is thinking of returning to his old home in Nebraska. Prof. Finn received quite a lot of nursery stock this week. Several did not take their orders owing to the lateness of the season and most of it will be a loss. The stock was delayed while enroute. Joe Smith completed an irrigating ditch in the H. C. Levens field the latter part of last week which carries water to a new lot of ground seeded this spring. It is the intention of Judge Levens to seed the same ground to alfalfa next season. Jap McKinnon and assistants are at present at work moving some of the Lecher buildings from their old sites on the north side of B St. to new locations. They had the misfortune to break their skids the other day and left one building in the middle of the street until they could go to the timber for a new one. Mart Baker was in making proof on his homestead Wednesday. His family accompanied him. Mart thinks he will be able to leave for California possibly by the 15th of this month and will take quite a bunch of mules which he will market. If prices will justify he expects to make several drives from this section during the season. Mr. Baker and his estimable wife have long resided in this valley and their many friends wish them success in their new home.
