She asked him what he had been doing for it, and he County Court meets the first Wednesday in told her he had been using that liniment in the pantry. "What liniment?" she asked. So he got the bottle and showed it to her. "Well, of all fools, you do beat all!" screamed the wife. "That ain't liniment, that's a bottle of bust developer that Mary Ann sent to St. Louis for."-Ex.

> In the note and comment column of the Oregonian was Journal. found the following: Who has not suffered at one time or another from the squalling of a leather lunged baby? There is no other series of sounds that can produce such an effect of horror in the human breast. The unmusical balling of a baby, if kept up long enough, will drive strongest men to drink or to murder. And all the time that the world has been suffering under the infliction, Mrs. Amelia Holbrook has had the secret key to universal happiness locked up in her bosom. At last she has placed it in the hands of all. To the Professional Woman's League, of New York, Mrs. Holbrook has said;

No mother should be weak enough to allow her baby to scream off key. She should carry a tunning fork, and when the child is about to begin a prolonged howl give him the proper note.

The universal adoption of this plan will help to make existance the grand sweet song it should be. and the harmonious cries of a thousand infants will make the air vocal with a paean to Mrs. Hol-
