

THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF NEWSPAPER IN THIS COUNTY.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1901.

Local News.

Mason fruit jars at Voegtly's. Dain Hay Bucks at Voegtly's.

Frank Cummins is over from his ranch near Westfall. Are you going to the Railroad if so do not forget the O. C. Co.

Ike Constance was seen on our streets last evening. The O. C. Co. know no competition, the old reliable.

Dr. Marsden is expected home from Malheur county tonight. Osborne and Aene mowers at the O. C. Co. get their prices.

Clarence Cary was among our visitors this week. Order groceries from the Miller & Thompson closing out stock.

Mrs. Robt. McKinnon has gone to Washington on a visit to relatives. Frank Metschan and family are down from their home in Silvies valley.

Lee Thornburg made proof on some land before the local land office Tuesday. It is reported that the races at Drewsey the fore part of the week were very good.

Jerry Merritt, a resident of the Buck creek section, is a business visitor to our city. If you see a good watch or jewelry see Haines & Nelson at the old Jorgensen stand.

The new granary erected by N. Brown & Sons is rapidly being filled with grain. Big Burns Golden Star soap at 5 cents per bar for cash at Lunenburg & Dalton's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Purrington have moved into their residence in this city for the winter. You should call and get prices at Miller and Thompson's—closing out prices that cannot be equaled elsewhere.

The old pioneer, J. H. Garrett, was down on land business this week and spent a day or two renewing acquaintances. The ladies of the Baptist church will serve lunch, ice cream and cake during the fair, in the building south of Dr. Burrow's office.

We will sell you anything in the line of farming machinery at prices and terms that defy competition. Please call and get prices and terms Geer & Cummins.

N. U. Carpenter is expected home this evening from the railroad. He is accompanied by Mrs. Carpenter's mother, Mrs. Schilling, who will visit here for a time.

For Sale—A 3 1/2 inch wagon, a set of double harness and a workmare and colt. Inquire of E. N. Nelson, the watchmaker.

Julius Chandler was over from the Warm Springs the first of the week on business. Julius had the misfortune to get hurt in a runaway not long since making him quite lame, but it is not serious.

V. B. Staples and wife and J. D. Billingsley and wife will take their departure next Tuesday for a visit to the world's fair. Mr. and Mrs. Staples will also visit relatives at Virgie's old home in Henderson, Ky., before returning—Ontario Democrat.

The First National bank of Lakeview received a telegram from Antelope, Oregon, asking for a price on 10,000 (mixed) yearling sheep. The impression among sheepmen is that the stock can be purchased delivered at nearest railroad station at $2.00 and $2.25.—Lakeview Examiner.

Bishop H. L. Barkley, of Portland, arrived here last Saturday to look over the country with a view to investing. He went immediately to the Welcomeville section and has bought 640 acres of school land near Crow Camp. Bishop Barkley is very favorably impressed with Harney county and says it will be the banner county of the state in a short time. The gentleman left on his return home this morning.

Mrs. Rose Hembree-McGrath, of Kansas City, Mo., is a guest of Mrs. Julian Byrd this week. Mrs. McGrath was a former resident of Harney county, having taught here for several years and also served one term as deputy county clerk under C. E. Kenyon. She has spent the past two months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hembree and expects to take her departure for Baker City next Tuesday. Mrs. McGrath's many friends here enjoy her occasional visits very much.

Job printing—The Times-Herald. Do you want blacksmith coal? The O. C. Co. is headquarters.

County Clerk Mothershead has been in the Law section for the past few days on business. Remember Brown's Profit Sharing Plan. Secure your coupon with every cash purchase.

Paul Finke was down from his mountain home the first of the week as a witness on the land proof of his old neighbor, J. H. Garrett. The families of John Robinson and Chas Johnson have again taken up their residence in this city in order that the children may attend school.

G. L. Hembree, the energetic young merchant at Riley, was in the city Tuesday, having brought his sister, Mrs. McGrath, over. He returned home the following day. Mr. Van Graven representing the St. Louis Photo Co. has put up his gallery opposite the White Front Livery Stable and is now prepared to take up-to-date photographs. High grade work only. Prices reasonable. In town for a short time only.

C. R. Peterson was over from his Crane creek home this week, having come to take his family home. Mr. Peterson informs us he had had luck with his fruit this season, the crop not being as good as expected on account of frost. His neighbors fared better. J. M. Vaughn, the pioneer newspaper man, who formerly conducted the Items, is here from Portland on a visit to old friends. John now has a good position on the Oregon Journal in Portland where he has resided for the past several years. He reports Mrs. Vaughn enjoying good health.

The public schools opened last Monday with a full corps of teachers and some 170 scholars enrolled. Miss Stargis, one of the primary teachers found it necessary to give up her position on account of letters from her home in Michigan. Mrs. A. J. Irwin has been employed by the board to fill the vacancy temporarily and possibly for the year. The school grounds are being put in better shape by the school board, walks made to outbuildings and other improvements made for the comfort of the pupils.

Married—Tuesday, Sept. 20, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Cawfield, Dr. W. C. Brown and Miss Arminda Simmons, Rev. A. J. Irwin officiating. Only a few friends of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony which took place at 5 o'clock p. m. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. N. J. Simmons and has been a resident of this county all her life. She is a very sweet young lady and much admired by her acquaintances. Dr. Brown is one of our successful dentists who spent his boyhood days in Harney county and who returned here a year ago and opened an office. His friends are legend. Dr. and Mrs. Brown have the best wishes of The Times-Herald. They reside for the present in the McGee residence.

Notice of Appointment of Administrators. In the Matter of the Estate of B. F. Ausmus, Deceased. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned R. R. Sitz and Maida K. See the handsome toilet set that Lunenburg & Dalton are giving away. A coupon with every cash purchase.

A Power for Good. The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, of Albany, Ga. says: "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time the effect was pleasant. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by Burns Drug Stores.

CONTEST NOTICE. United States Land Office, Burns, Oregon, Aug. 30, 1901. A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Grant Kester, contestant, against homestead entry No. 1855, made February 25, 1903, for N 1/2 SW 1/4 and W 1/2 SE 1/4, Section 17, Township 25 S., Range 28 E., by Libby J. Mulloy, Contestee, in which it is alleged that said Libby J.
