J. E. Baker of Butte county, Cal., brother to W. D. Baker of Drewry, was here this week in company with Milt Davis. The young man is quite favorably impressed with Eastern Oregon and will likely locate in this county. While in lban recently Mr. Baker says it as reported that the Corvallis & Eastern Railroad had been purchased by the Southern Pacific.
This, it appears, was merely a umor as nothing has been noticed in the state press regarding such a transfer.

How'd you like to be weather

Wm. Brotherton and family have gone to the railroad where Mrs.
Brotherton and children will take the train for Salem where she will make her home with her mother.

The W. N. Jorgensen stock will be sold out during the holidays at bed rock prices. It consists of watches, jewelry, optical goods, etc, and can be found at Haines & Nelson's.

Mrs. O. Calkins was a passenger out on Tuesday's Canyon stage en route to Portland to visit her son and daughter. She expects to remain there all winter.

The Windsor, under the management of C. B. Smith & Co., is one of the most popular resorts in the interior. Finest of liquors and cigars, billiards and card tables and expert mixologists.

the court house yesterday. Mr.
Sitz is among the prominent stock men of this section and takes quite an interest in bettering the class of stock. He has one of the finest herds of Short Horn cattle in Eastern Oregon.

E. B. Reed is suffering at his home in this city from typhoid fever. Mr. Reed was confined to his room many months last winter with asthma and it seems his share of sickness is rather more than the usual allotment to man. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

Christmas gifts are now occupying the minds of the people and while you are looking for suitable ones just drop in to Geer & Cummins and see the fine lot of China-home of the latter in this city suffering from sciatic rheumatism.

Mr. Byram first hurt his hip while working on a flume which he is building in order to bring water upon a large tract of land in Bear valley for irrigating purpose. He is improving under the care of Dr.
Marsden.

Scott Catterson had so far recovered from his wounds as to be able to return to his home at Lawen the first of this week. He was on the streets greeting his many friends for more than a week and looked well. He told The Times-Herald man he had gained about 15 pounds in weight since being under the care of the doctor.
