Otis Winters the little son of Mrs Isaac Winters, who has been suffering from heart trouble for the past year or more, has been very low for several days. Although the physician reports a slight change in his condition, his case is very serious. Rev. A. J. Irwin has returned home from a two weeks' trip in various parts of the valley. He was visiting these parts in the interest of his church work, but incidentally talked Lewis and Clark and found the people in general much interested and enthusiastic. W. E. Alberson came over from Andrews this week to pay his taxes and attend to other business. Bill says the rebate on his taxes was 48 cents and is trying to figure out how much he made by making a 200 mile trip to get in before the limit on rebate had expired. W. C. Cecil is in the city having just returned from a trip to the Cecil ranches in California. He brought home one of the finest stallions ever seen in this part of the state, also a bull dog—the latter's pedigree is not known to us. Carol says he brought home other needed machinery for the ranch but not particular as to its uses. J J Heinz came in Wednesday with his little 7-year-old daughter who had the misfortune to get her leg broken last week. He informs us the child was playing in the barn and wandered in among the horses where she says she fell down and a horse stepped on her leg breaking it just above the ankle. The little sufferer is getting along very well. R R Sitz, the breeder of the pure blood Short Horn cattle, was in the city a few days this week. He informs us that he has made several sales during the past season and that his stock is getting pretty well introduced among the stockmen of Eastern Oregon. Mr Sitz was in on business connected with the estate of the late B F Ausmus, for which he is administrator. The armature in the dynamo at the water power station at the grist mill burned out Thursday night burned out and left the patrons of the electric light plant in darkness. The power plant was steamed up last night for the first time in several months and lights were again good. It is not known as yet the amount of damage done to the dynamo at the mill. Mesdames C A Sweek and W Y King gave a reception to the members of the basket ball teams at the home of the former last Tuesday evening. The girls of both the High School and the B A C teams were present together, with their escorts and officials. There were 40 present and report a most enjoyable time. Pitt was indulged in and prizes awarded to Byrd King and John Sayer for the highest score. Mrs C B Smith and Roswell Hamilton got the "boobies". Refreshments were served.

NOTICE OF SALE. In the County Court of Harney County, Oregon. C. A. Sweek, plaintiff vs. A. J. Gardner, defendant. Notice is hereby given, that pursuant to an execution issued from the office of the County Clerk of Harney County, Oregon on the 4th day of March 1905, commanding me to levy upon and sell the hereinafter described real property to satisfy a judgment rendered in the above named court for the sum of $50 00 and costs taxed at $15 00 and ordering the sale of the property herein attached, in favor of the plaintiff C. A. Sweek and against defendant A. J. Gardner, in an action therein pending, wherein the said C. A. Sweek was plaintiff and said A. J. Gardner defendant, which said judgment was duly docketed on the 3rd day of March 1905, therefore I, the undersigned Sheriff of Harney County, Oregon, in obedience to the commands of said Execution, will on Monday the 3rd day of April 1905, at the Court House door in the City of Burns, Harney County, Oregon, offer for sale at public vendue to the highest bidder for cash all the right title and interest of defendant A. J. Gardner in and to the following described real property to-wit: The South West quarter of the South West quarter of Section 16, T. 22, S., Range 32 E. W. M. in Harney County, Oregon, to satisfy said judgment, interest, costs and accruing costs. TOM ALLEN, Sheriff of Harney County Oregon.

SHERIFF'S SALE. In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Harney. Chas. F. McKinney and James A.
