He took an armature belonging to the electric light plant with him to be repaired, it having been burned out recently, but found it was necessary to send it to the factory. During his absence he visited his son Mervin at Corvallis and states that all the Harney county students are doing well.

M. L. Lewis made another trip to Silver this week to take measurements of the water at the gaging station there for the government. Mr. Lewis stated that the flow is holding up well and from indications would continue so for some time. He states positively there will be considerable more water than had been anticipated. W W Dickenson came down from the saw mill this week and says there are two feet of snow in that section yet, not over the entire area, however, but sufficient to keep the river up to a later date than ordinary years.

ODD FELLOWS CELEBRATE.

On the evening of the 26th, a large number of the local Odd Fellows and Rebekahs with their families and a few invited guests gathered at the I. O. O. F. Hall in this city for the purpose of celebrating the 86th anniversary of the Order. Although no program had been arranged they spent a very enjoyable and social evening with several vocal selections from various ones present, the little folks putting in the time at games in the anterooms.

The crowd was a jolly one and seemed bent upon having just a good, informal time talking with their neighbors, discussing the work and growth of the order for the year just passed and planning for future work.

At 10 o'clock the tables were spread and the many good things placed on the festive board consisting of everything possible together with coffee. This part of the program had been arranged beforehand and all present were prepared to participate.

Among those from a distance who were present were: J. W. Shown and wife, A. K. Richardson and wife, Lester Hamilton and wife, Star Buckland and wife, Mrs Robt. Irving and children, Mrs Archie Millard, Miss Leatha Smith, Miss Bertha Boyer, Miss Ida Turner and Mr. Loyd. Many others from the immediate vicinity of Burns were also present. The fun lasted until almost midnight before any-one thought of quitting.
