Brown's new clothing just in.
Tom Cleveland is over from the sad house.

Go-Carts! Go-Carts! Go-Carts!
G W Cleveland & Co.

G W Luce was among the visitors to our city this week.

Dr. W. C. Brown, Dentist. Office upstairs in Voegtly building.

C. Bear, Rev. Minaker and Frances Griffin have gone to the Narrows for a few days.

Adam George is selling school furniture and the various districts should see him before placing orders.

City Marshal Smith desires to notify all interested that they must keep up their stock, as he will see that the "cow" ordinance is enforced to the letter.

Those desiring to purchase a piano should call at G W Cleveland & Co's furniture store. This firm now carries instruments.

Mr and Mrs Cal Geer will take a deserved vacation this summer and will visit their old home at Silverton, take in the Lewis and Clark and may possibly go to Arizona to spend the winter with their daughter, Mrs Dr. Clevier.

At a special meeting of the public school board held last Monday Lute Parker was awarded the contract to furnish 40 cords of wood to the district at $3.90 per cord. It was also definitely decided to hold a nine month's term of school the coming year to begin Sept. 4.

Frank W. Raine, a nephew of J. C. Freeman, and half brother to Julius Chandler, arrived here on last Saturday from San Francisco. Mr. Raine comes with the intention of locating permanently and will later send for his wife. He accompanied Mr. Freeman out to the Warm Springs Sunday.

The Times-Herald is in receipt of an invitation to the commencement exercises at Oshkosh, Wisconsin, June 11 to 15. Miss Josephine Locher is a member of the graduating class this year. Miss Locher has been absent from her home in this city for several years and has improved her time most profitably. The young lady has secured a position as teacher in the West Salem high school of Wisconsin for the coming year and will not return home, much to the disappointment of her many friends.

J. W. Biggs has received a handsome racing sulky which arrived on Thursday's stage from the bicycle road. It is a beauty having bicycle wheels and pneumatic tires—and its painted red. When attached to one of John's several trotting animals and he has hold of the ribbons it will be a fine turn out altogether and we may look for some new records. Mr. Biggs has taken a great interest in bringing about a change for better horse-flesh in Harney county and is preparing to engage quite extensively in blooded horses, having several exceptionally fine animals now en route from California to add to his present stables.

Chas King made proof on his desert last Wednesday.

Bring your eggs to the City Meat Market and get cash for them.

W. H. Morrison and wife were visitors to our city Wednesday.

Nabisco's, Macaronas, Pimomas and Festinas are among the really fine table delicacies at Huston's.

The ladies of the Baptist church will have a window sale at the store of E. B. Reed & Son on Saturday, June 24.

$8000 will take 160 acres of good and 10 miles East of Burns. It was a choice claim five years ago. See Lewis.

Regular shipments of Hood River strawberries twice a week during the season at Schwartz & Budelman's, 20 cents the box.

H. M. Hibbard and wife brought their little daughter down from the mill one day this week for medical attendance. The little one was suffering from erysipelas.

Drop in and get a big glass of that fine Harney Valley Brewing Co. beer at the new beer hall and saloon.

Messrs Drinkwater & Clay are the proprietors of a blacksmith and repair shop in Drewsey. They desire a share of the public patronage.

Assessor Logan informs us C. R. Peterson is enjoying a visit from his parents, who came from their home at Fort Bidwell a short time ago.

Tom Sagers and wife have gone to their ranch home near Narrows where Tom will spend the summer fencing and otherwise improving his ranch. They accompanied Ed Springer out Wednesday.

Fred Oakerman was over from his Silver creek home last Sunday, accompanied by his wife and niece, Miss Savage. Mr. Oakerman informs The Times-Herald that he had disposed of about 40 head of horses to Harry Smith, the price being $50 per head.

Mr. Hauck, the horsebuyer, has purchased quite a number of animals on Silver creek and several in this vicinity. He informs us he is having no trouble in finding the class of horses he desires and from the sales made his prices seem to be quite satisfactory.

James Paul contemplates an extended visit to Kentucky this summer, leaving here in September and going via Portland where he will visit the fair. He expects to be absent two or three months. Jim will enjoy such a trip but it is only right to post him before hand that "mint juleps" and straight "corn juice" go down there instead of buck beer.

The schedule on the O-B stage line has been changed in the time of departure from Burns. The post master was notified the time for leaving here had been changed to 2:30 p.m. instead of 6 a.m., but Contractor Williams was notified the time was 2:30 a.m. It goes into effect today. The stage is being held here awaiting advice from Ontario as to the nature of the notice given that office. At present it is not understood which schedule to follow nor does it appear to be of any particular benefit to any one.

Mrs Chas Roper paid our city a visit one day this week.

Tim Donovan was down from his home one day this week.

Tom Howser came in with freight from the railroad this week.

Judge Davis has handed down a decision in the Voegtly divorce case, by dismissing the charge of both the plaintiff and defendant, neither party being granted a divorce. The costs were taxed up to both parties, each having their own costs.

An outing party left here Thursday morning for Spring creek to spend a week or so fishing. The party consisted of Mrs H. B. Mace and daughter, Miss Vella, Mrs W. E. Trisch, Misses Clara Burrow, Bertha Williams and Frank Shelly, Robt George and Grandpa Freeman.

C. H. Leonard and family were in from Weltonville a few days this week. Mr. Leonard making proof on her desert. They returned Wednesday afternoon, as Farmer Leonard was anxious to continue his work plowing, putting in garden and clearing sage brush. Leonard has at last found his calling.

MARRIED—Last Wednesday at the home of Mr and Mrs F. M. Jordan in this city, Ben Jordan and Miss Bessie Miller were married. Rev. A. B. Minaker, of the Baptist church officiating. The contracting parties are well known to the people of Harney county and have a large circle of friends who extend well wishes. Only the immediate relatives were present at the ceremony.

Peter Clemens and family have returned from Portland where they visited the Lewis and Clark fair. Mr. Clemens states it is magnificent, but not entirely complete. Harney county's exhibit was not completed when they left but will make a hit when opened to the public and Mr. Clemens says no other county exhibit can compare with it in attractiveness. He visited the Burbank exhibit of vegetables and says Harney county potatoes will beat it.

J. C. Buckland, J. W. Shown and Wm Russell were down from Harney Wednesday, bringing with them a fine black Percheron stallion which was recently purchased by a company of stockmen of that vicinity. The animal is one of the best bred stallions in Eastern Oregon, being a thoroughbred and imported from France this spring. He is three years old and weighs 1,730 pounds and cost the company $3,200. The Times-Herald is pleased to note that the horsemen of Harney county are securing a fine lot of blooded stock this spring, this being the fourth horse to be brought in this spring of a high class.

PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon has notified me in writing that pursuant to the provisions of an act entitled "An Act making effective the initiative and referendum provisions of Section 1, Article 4 of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, and regulating elections thereunder and providing penalties for violations of provisions of this Act," approved February 24th, 1905, there was duly filed in his office on May 18th, 1906, a referendum petition containing 6,312 signatures properly attached thereto, and certified in accordance with law, ordering that House Bill Number 370, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses of the maintenance, repairs, improvements, equipment and current expenses of the Insane Asylum, Penitentiary, Reform, Deaf-Mute and Blind Schools, University, Agricultural College and Normal Schools, and other current expenses of the state, and declaring an emergency," passed by the Twenty-third Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon at the regular session of said Legislative Assembly, shall be referred to the people of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906; that said 6,312 signatures to said petition are more than five per cent of the whole number of votes cast for Justice of the Supreme Court at the last regular election.

Now, Therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act hereinbefore mentioned, do hereby make and issue this proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, announcing that there has been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon a referendum petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached, ordering that House Bill Number 370, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses of the maintenance, repairs, improvements, equipment and current expenses of the Insane Asylum, Penitentiary, Reform, Deaf-Mute and Blind Schools, University, Agricultural College and Normal Schools, and other current expenses of the state, and declaring an emergency," passed by the Twenty-third Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon at the regular session of said Legislative Assembly, be submitted to the legal electors of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906, the same being the first Monday in June, 1906.

Done at the Capitol in the City of Salem, State of Oregon, this—day of May, 1906.

(Signed) GEO. E. CHAMBERLAIN, Governor.

By the Governor: (Signed) F. L. DUNBAR, Secretary of State.
