Miss Madge Miller, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Miller, was an arrival on last Monday's Canyon stage returning home from Corvallis where she was a student in the Agricultural college during the past year. Miss Madge is glad to be at home again among her many friends.

N. C. Hubbard and wife were down from their mountain home last Tuesday. They were down on business and returned home the following day. Mr Hubbard was well pleased with the glowing received from Harney county's exhibit at the Lewis and Clark fair, and says he's going down later to see it.

Carroll Cecil and Tom Spifford came over from Silver creek Monday. Carroll has just returned from a visit to his family in Portland and incidentally he took in the fair a few days. He reports both the boys Homer and Pat at work one on the home ranch and the other en route to California with a bunch of mules.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Thompson were in the city a short time this week. Grant informs us that the haying season will begin much earlier than usual this season in his section. The harvest will begin about the 1st of July in the higher ground and all will be in readiness by the 10th or 15th. Mr Thompson has embarked in the sheep business this spring having just bought a flock.

Mrs Clay Clemens was reported sick at Harney last Wednesday evening, but the lady quickly recovered as he was in this city the following day and able to be on the streets.

Mrs Roy McGee took her departure Thursday morning for Portland to visit the fair. We are informed the lady will extend her visit to Eugene where she will stay an indefinite time with relatives and friends.

Marshal Smith, has a bad thumb on his right hand which he had dislocated the other day, not in handling wrongdoers of the law, but by a foul ball. Geo is put out of the baseball game the 4th as a consequence.

Will McKinney, Mrs. A. W. Gowan and daughter, Mabel, and Leon Johnson were passengers in on last night's Canyon stage. Leon had been over working on the extension of the Sumpter Valley trying to hurry it on into Burns. The others were returning from Portland where they attended the Masonic and Eastern Star grand lodges and took in the fair.

For sale—A modern five room dwelling, in centre of full block, all eared, good out buildings. A snap if taken quick. See M. L. Lewis.

At a meeting of a number of our citizens who take a special interest in the fair department, held at the city hall Thursday evening, it was decided to reorganize completely, draft new by-laws and limit the membership to 30. W. O. White, Frank Jackson and James Donegan were appointed a committee to draft new by-laws and they will report at a meeting to be held Monday evening.

The annual school election was held at the school house last Monday afternoon. Hon. A. W. Gowan was elected director for a term of three years and A. C. Welton elected clerk one year. Clerk Hons-ton's report was one of the most complete ever rendered in the district, he having gone to the building previous to the meeting and placed the figures on the blackboard, covering all the available space in the principal's room, with comparative tables in the most comprehensive manner. Financial condition of the district is in fine shape and a special tax of 7 mills was voted, the least in several years.

They were accompanied in from their Crane creek home by Mrs Frank Harrison and Lea Shelby, both of whom had been visiting them for a few weeks. Frank has to behave himself since his wife came home.

Dr. L. E. Hibbard and Guy Shaver spent a few days at Pelican island this week. They brought in some valuable new specimens of birds the skins of which were prepared and sent to Mr Wallace to add to our collection at the fair. They also collected a fine lot of bird eggs for the same purpose. Dr. Hibbard had his kodak along and made some snap shots of the island that is almost completely covered with pelican nests.

Prof Rigby arrived home last Wednesday evening from his vacation to Southern Oregon. His family remained in Jackson county. Prof informs us he visited the fair a few days, having gone to Portland in time to see the Harney county educational exhibit put in place under his own supervision. We are pleased to learn that it compares very favorably with like exhibits from other counties and is even larger than many more populous counties.

W. Y. King and family and J. M. Dalton's family took their departure Thursday morning for the Willamette Valley where they will spend a part of the vacation months visiting relatives and friends. The party went overland and expect to go to the coast for a few days and also take in the fair. If they all go in a bunch there will be a noticeable increase in the attendance at the fair during that period and Harney county will be well represented.

Frank Rieder, manager of the W. V. & C. M. W. R. Co., took his departure yesterday morning for outside points. He goes from here to Ontario, visiting several particular tracts of the company's land holdings while en route, and from there to Portland where he will confer with Col Wood, the company's attorney. Mr. Rieder will then proceed to Albany and return over the mountains along the route of the land grant.

A private letter from Crane creek received in this city last Saturday announced that the C. A. Bonnett horses had been sold to an Omaha man named Frost. Later Mr Bonnett came in and in talking to a representative of the great religious weekly said he was "afraid," having disposed of all but a few broken horses at a good figure. He would not give the price, but referred us to Mr Frost. The stock is to be delivered in two shipments, the first on July 8, the other Sept. 1.

M. L. Lewis informs us that at a public meeting held at Harney City last Monday a stock company was formed of business men of that place and farmers in that vicinity to erect a $10,000 flouring mill. A majority of the necessary capital was pledged at the meeting and it has every indication of being a go. The Harney section is one of the finest wheat belts of this county, and the building of this mill will be an incentive to raise more wheat. They hope to have the mill completed for this seasons crop.

Money saving methods to be inaugurated at Browns will be a sure money maker for you.

Chas. Logan and W. R. Crawford were down from Harney last Sunday. They called on The Times-Herald and ordered posters for a big celebration in their little city on the 4th of July. The posters were forwarded to them the following mail. Harney has prepared a nice program for their Natal day celebration the most interesting feature, at least to the writer with his "internal feelin's" at this particular moment, is a basket dinner and barbecued beef. A literary program will be rendered in the forenoon with patriotic music, speeches, etc., follow by a big dinner with an afternoon of sports that can be participated in by every individual that attends. A grand ball takes place in the evening.

PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon has notified me in writing that pursuant to the provisions of an act entitled "An Act making effective the initiative and referendum provisions of Section 1, Article 4 of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, and regulating elections thereunder and providing penalties for violations of provisions of this Act," approved February 24th, 1903, there was duly filed in his office on May 18th, 1906, a referendum petition containing 6,312 signatures properly attached thereto, and certified in accordance with law, ordering that House Bill Number 370, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses of the maintenance, repairs, improvements, equipment and current expenses of the Insane Asylum, Penitentiary, Reformatory, Agricultural College and Normal Schools, and other current expenses of the state, and declaring an emergency," passed by the Twenty-third Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon at the regular session of said Legislative Assembly, shall be referred to the people of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906; that said 6,312 signatures to said petition are more than five per cent of the whole number of votes cast for Justice of the Supreme Court at the last regular election.

Now, Therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act hereinbefore mentioned, do hereby make and issue this proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, announcing that there has been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon a referendum petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached, ordering that House Bill Number 370, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses of the maintenance, repairs, improvements, equipment and current expenses of the Insane Asylum, Penitentiary, Reformatory, Agricultural College and Normal Schools, and other current expenses of the state, and declaring an emergency," passed by the Twenty-third Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon at the regular session of said Legislative Assembly, be submitted to the legal electors of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular election to be held on the 4th of June, 1906, the same being the first Monday in June, 1906. Done at the Capitol in the City of Salem, State of Oregon, this—day of May, 1906.

(Signed) GEO. E. CHAMBERLAIN, Governor. By the Governor: (Signed) F. J. DUNBAR, Secretary of State.
