

The Times-Herald.

HAS THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY NEWSPAPER IN THIS COUNTY.

SATURDAY, JULY 1, 1905.

Local News.

Browns new clothing just in.

W. D. Arnett was in the city Thursday.

Supt Gilcrest of the P. L. S. & Co. spent a few days here this week.

Dr. W. C. Brown, Dentist. Office upstairs in Voegtly building.

C. F. McKinney was down from the mill a few days this week returning Thursday.

Link Hutton, the Wagontire sheepman, spent a few days in this city this week on business.

A. L. Hunter was a passenger on last Saturday's Prineville stage. He expects to remain in this country indefinitely.

Those desiring to purchase a piano should call at G W Clevenier & Co's furniture store. This firm now carries instruments.

Rob Reed was up from Lawen last Saturday on land business. He was accompanied by James Johnson and Albert Cawfield.

Messrs Drinkwater & Clay are the proprietors of a blacksmith and repair shop in Drewsey. They desire a share of the public patronage.

Frank Bennett, brother of B. P., who has been visiting the latter for several weeks, took his departure Saturday via Shaniko for Port Townsend, Wash., where he has a son.

Reports from the Poison Creek vicinity are to the effect that frost did some damage to gardens last Wednesday morning. The previous night was quite cold but no damage was done to vegetables or fruit in this city.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC:—We call your attention to the fact that in Burns our beer is only on sale to our own saloon other parties claiming to handle it are imposters.

Harney Valley Brewing Co.

G. W. Waters, Mgr.

Commissioner Miller and family were the guests of friends in this city last Monday, having come in to attend to some land matters. Mr Miller is well pleased with the reports from Harney County's exhibit at the Lewis and Clark.

J. H. Byerly and family arrived here this week from their home on the coast and are at present guests of Ira Stubblefield and wife. Mr. R. informs us they will spend the summer here and he expects to put in a part of the time with "Daddy" Byrd on a fishing expedition.

A. K. Richardson, the Harney saw mill man, was down on business last Sunday. While here he told the members of the Burns Band to make out a bill of lumber for a band stand and he would fill it free of charge. Lon's generous offer will be accepted by the boys who appreciate the offer very much and will repay him with some fine open air concerts in the future.

We Shoe the Whole Family AND DO IT WELL.

Better values you cannot secure anywhere.

Our Kindergarten Lines of Infant and Children's Shoes gives a large assortment of The Best manufactured.

Sizes 2 to 4 1-2, no heel.

Sizes 5 to 8 with low heels.

JOHN S' ROOTMAN'S FAMOUS SHOES

For ladies and children.

See Our Line of Oxford Ties.

Men's Shoes

For Dress and Heavy wear.

J. S. B. Cash Store

Sells For Cash at Lowest Prices.

Groceries at new prices for cash see Brown.

Mrs. Shaver is reported on the sick list.

A fine line of the swellest clothing obtainable at Browns.

Born—Yesterday, June 30, to Mr and Mrs John Marshall a son.

Bring your eggs to the City Meat Market and get cash for them.

Paul Blume and Tim Doonan are down from their mountain homes.

Nabisco, Macronas, Pimona and Festinas, are among the really fine table delicacies at Huston's.

A. A. Rineman and his nephew, Hugo Rineman, were in from the Warm Springs a few days this week.

$600 will take 160 acres of good and 10 miles East of Burns It was a choice claim five years ago. See Lewis.

T. M. Gibson lost a camp stove between Burns and Lawen last Saturday. Finder please notify him at Burns.

Mervin Horton is home from Corvallis where he had been attending the Agricultural college, having arrived on last Wednesday's Ontario stage.

Fred Oakerman came over from Riley and was accompanied upon his return home yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Oakerman and niece, Miss Savage.

A phone message at 1:30 announced that the jury in the trial of Senator Mitchell had not yet brought in a verdict. The case was given to the jury Thursday night.

R Sitz, the Lawen stockman, was a business visitor Thursday, having come in to secure machinery and extra preparatory to begin haying.

Mrs A B Minaker, who was reported last week as suffering from rheumatism, is still seriously ill and Dr Burrow is in almost constant attendance. Her case is considered quite serious.

The fishing party consisting of Rob George, Grandpa Friedman, Mesdames Mace and Trisch, Misses Clayte Burrow, Vella Mace, Frank Shelley and Bertha Williams arrived home from the mountains last Friday evening. They succeeded in catching alnast enough fish to eat, some caught colds and others fell in the creek and caught a ducking. However, they had a jolly good time and Miss Frank Shelley has resumed her old place as a compositor in this office.

Jay Gould and Nolia Reed arrived home Wednesday evening from Corvallis where they were attending the Agricultural college.

The boys accompanied the cadet corps from the school to the Lewis and Clark fair where they were in camp for a few days and also participated in the field meet held at the fair in which all the leading schools competed. Corvallis carried off the honors. The boys soon tired of the exposition sights, and "hit the trail" for home as soon as they were released from duty on the cadet corps.

Hank Felton arrived home Thursday evening from Sacramento Cal., where he went after some fine trotting stock recently purchased by our blooded horse enthusiast, John Biggs. Hank shipped sixteen head and brought in fourteen, leaving one mare and suckling colt at White Horse. Mr. Biggs met the horses at Alvord, they having been driven overland from Winneconne, and assisted in bringing them on. While the animals are considerably jaded from their long trip they are a fine looking bunch and much admired by horse men who have seen them.

Price Withers was a caller at this office Thursday and stated he had just returned from an extended trip to outside points. He and his wife went by private conveyance to Gilliam county where they visited relatives for a short time and then proceeded to Portland where they took in the opening days of the fair. They also made a trip to Eugene and spent a few days with Mr. Withers' parents and again visited the fair upon their return. Mr. Withers was drawn on the regular panel as a juror to a grand federal court now in session in Portland, but not being at home the subpoena was not served and was returned to the marshal. Mr. Withers states that crops in this valley compare most favorably with those of other Eastern Oregon counties through which he passed. In fact, he finds vegetation further advanced here than in many places.

Mrs. Shaver is reported on the sick list.

A fine line of the swellest clothing obtainable at Browns.

Born—Yesterday, June 30, to Mr and Mrs John Marshall a son.

James Pirie and wife were making purchases in this city Wednesday.

Ham, Bacon, Lard Butter and Eggs, Timothy Seed at the City Meat Market.

Bookkeeper Holland, of the P. L. S. Co. arrived home yesterday from a visit to outside points.

Jess Alberson was in the city Wednesday. He is now living at Andrews.

Born—This morning, to Mr and Mrs Fred Denstedt, at their home east of this city, a son.

To Haines & Nelson's and get Rogers Bros silverware at cost. See their line of watches and jewelry.

Leave orders at the Brewery Saloon for bottled beer which will be delivered at your home in any quantity desired. Ask for prices.

A K Richardson is now turning out lumber at his Harney saw mill, also shingles and is ready to fill your orders. Call him up on the private phone at the Welcome Pharmacy when in haste for anything in his line.

J L Hopper was down from Silvies Wednesday.

Sam Mickel was among our visitors this week.

Frank Fister was over from Crane creek this week.

The firm of Haines & Nelson, the Jewelers, having been dissolved, the partnership goods are being sold out at cost.

August Miller and daughter, Miss Emma, came over from Calamity Thursday returning home yesterday.

Leave orders at the Brewery Saloon for bottled beer which will be delivered at your home in any quantity desired. Ask for prices.

A K Richardson is now turning out lumber at his Harney saw mill, also shingles and is ready to fill your orders. Call him up on the private phone at the Welcome Pharmacy when in haste for anything in his line.

PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon has notified me in writing that pursuant to the provisions of an act entitled "An Act making effective the initiative and referendum provisions of Section 1, Article 4 of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, and regulating elections thereunder and providing penalties for violations of provisions of this Act," approved February 24th, 1903, there was duly filed in his office on May 18th, 1905, a referendum petition containing 6,312 signatures properly attached thereto, and certified in accordance with law, ordering that House Bill Number 370, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses of the maintenance, repairs, improvements, equipment and current expenses of the Insane Asylum, Penitentiary, Reformatory, Deaf Mute and Blind Schools, University, Agricultural College and Normal Schools, and other current expenses of the state, and declaring an emergency," passed by the Twenty-third Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon at the regular session of said Legislative Assembly, shall be referred to the people of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906; that said 6,312 signatures to said petition are more than five per cent of the whole number of votes cast for Justice of the Supreme Court at the last regular election.

Now, Therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act hereinbefore mentioned, do hereby make and issue this proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, announcing that there has been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon a referendum petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached, ordering that House Bill Number 370, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses of the maintenance, repairs, improvements, equipment and current expenses of the Insane Asylum, Penitentiary, Reformatory, Deaf Mute and Blind Schools, University, Agricultural College and Normal Schools, and other current expenses of the state, and declaring an emergency," passed by the Twenty-third Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon at the regular session of said Legislative Assembly, shall be referred to the people of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906; that said 6,312 signatures to said petition are more than five per cent of the whole number of votes cast for Justice of the Supreme Court at the last regular election.

Now, Therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act hereinbefore mentioned, do hereby make and issue this proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, announcing that there has been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon a referendum petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached, ordering that House Bill Number 370, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses of the maintenance, repairs, improvements, equipment and current expenses of the Insane Asylum, Penitentiary, Reformatory, Deaf Mute and Blind Schools, University, Agricultural College and Normal Schools, and other current expenses of the state, and declaring an emergency," passed by the Twenty-third Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon at the regular session of said Legislative Assembly, shall be referred to the people of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906; that said 6,312 signatures to said petition are more than five per cent of the whole number of votes cast for Justice of the Supreme Court at the last regular election.

Now, Therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act hereinbefore mentioned, do hereby make and issue this proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, announcing that there has been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon a referendum petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached, ordering that House Bill Number 370, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses of the maintenance, repairs, improvements, equipment and current expenses of the Insane Asylum, Penitentiary, Reformatory, Deaf Mute and Blind Schools, University, Agricultural College and Normal Schools, and other current expenses of the state, and declaring an emergency," passed by the Twenty-third Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon at the regular session of said Legislative Assembly, shall be referred to the people of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906; that said 6,312 signatures to said petition are more than five per cent of the whole number of votes cast for Justice of the Supreme Court at the last regular election.

Now, Therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act hereinbefore mentioned, do hereby make and issue this proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, announcing that there has been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon a referendum petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached, ordering that House Bill Number 370, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses of the maintenance, repairs, improvements, equipment and current expenses of the Insane Asylum, Penitentiary, Reformatory, Deaf Mute and Blind Schools, University, Agricultural College and Normal Schools, and other current expenses of the state, and declaring an emergency," passed by the Twenty-third Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon at the regular session of said Legislative Assembly, shall be referred to the people of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906; that said 6,312 signatures to said petition are more than five per cent of the whole number of votes cast for Justice of the Supreme Court at the last regular election.

Now, Therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act hereinbefore mentioned, do hereby make and issue this proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, announcing that there has been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon a referendum petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached, ordering that House Bill Number 370, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses of the maintenance, repairs, improvements, equipment and current expenses of the Insane Asylum, Penitentiary, Reformatory, Deaf Mute and Blind Schools, University, Agricultural College and Normal Schools, and other current expenses of the state, and declaring an emergency," passed by the Twenty-third Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon at the regular session of said Legislative Assembly, shall be referred to the people of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906; that said 6,312 signatures to said petition are more than five per cent of the whole number of votes cast for Justice of the Supreme Court at the last regular election.

Now, Therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act hereinbefore mentioned, do hereby make and issue this proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, announcing that there has been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon a referendum petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached, ordering that House Bill Number 370, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses of the maintenance, repairs, improvements, equipment and current expenses of the Insane Asylum, Penitentiary, Reformatory, Deaf Mute and Blind Schools, University, Agricultural College and Normal Schools, and other current expenses of the state, and declaring an emergency," passed by the Twenty-third Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon at the regular session of said Legislative Assembly, shall be referred to the people of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906; that said 6,312 signatures to said petition are more than five per cent of the whole number of votes cast for Justice of the Supreme Court at the last regular election.

Now, Therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act hereinbefore mentioned, do hereby make and issue this proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, announcing that there has been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon a referendum petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached, ordering that House Bill Number 370, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses of the maintenance, repairs, improvements, equipment and current expenses of the Insane Asylum, Penitentiary, Reformatory, Deaf Mute and Blind Schools, University, Agricultural College and Normal Schools, and other current expenses of the state, and declaring an emergency," passed by the Twenty-third Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon at the regular session of said Legislative Assembly, shall be referred to the people of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906; that said 6,312 signatures to said petition are more than five per cent of the whole number of votes cast for Justice of the Supreme Court at the last regular election.

Now, Therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act hereinbefore mentioned, do hereby make and issue this proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, announcing that there has been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon a referendum petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached, ordering that House Bill Number 370, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses of the maintenance, repairs, improvements, equipment and current expenses of the Insane Asylum, Penitentiary, Reformatory, Deaf Mute and Blind Schools, University, Agricultural College and Normal Schools, and other current expenses of the state, and declaring an emergency," passed by the Twenty-third Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon at the regular session of said Legislative Assembly, shall be referred to the people of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906; that said 6,312 signatures to said petition are more than five per cent of the whole number of votes cast for Justice of the Supreme Court at the last regular election.

Now, Therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act hereinbefore mentioned, do hereby make and issue this proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, announcing that there has been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon a referendum petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached, ordering that House Bill Number 370, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses of the maintenance, repairs, improvements, equipment and current expenses of the Insane Asylum, Penitentiary, Reformatory, Deaf Mute and Blind Schools, University, Agricultural College and Normal Schools, and other current expenses of the state, and declaring an emergency," passed by the Twenty-third Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon at the regular session of said Legislative Assembly, shall be referred to the people of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906; that said 6,312 signatures to said petition are more than five per cent of the whole number of votes cast for Justice of the Supreme Court at the last regular election.

Now, Therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act hereinbefore mentioned, do hereby make and issue this proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, announcing that there has been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon a referendum petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached, ordering that House Bill Number 370, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses of the maintenance, repairs, improvements, equipment and current expenses of the Insane Asylum, Penitentiary, Reformatory, Deaf Mute and Blind Schools, University, Agricultural College and Normal Schools, and other current expenses of the state, and declaring an emergency," passed by the Twenty-third Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon at the regular session of said Legislative Assembly, shall be referred to the people of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906; that said 6,312 signatures to said petition are more than five per cent of the whole number of votes cast for Justice of the Supreme Court at the last regular election.

Now, Therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act hereinbefore mentioned, do hereby make and issue this proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, announcing that there has been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon a referendum petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached, ordering that House Bill Number 370, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses of the maintenance, repairs, improvements, equipment and current expenses of the Insane Asylum, Penitentiary, Reformatory, Deaf Mute and Blind Schools, University, Agricultural College and Normal Schools, and other current expenses of the state, and declaring an emergency," passed by the Twenty-third Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon at the regular session of said Legislative Assembly, shall be referred to the people of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906; that said 6,312 signatures to said petition are more than five per cent