Brown's new clothing just in. Dr. W. C. Brown, Dentist. Office upstairs in Voegtly building. Thos. Bain, the pioneer rancher of the Harney district, was a visitor to this city last Saturday. Those desiring to purchase a piano should call at G. W. Cleverger & Co's furniture store. This firm now carries instruments. County Clerk Mothershead and Mose Schubener made a flying visit to Harney Tuesday evening returning early the following morning. Messrs Drinkwater & Clay are the proprietors of a blacksmith and repair shop in Drewsey. They desire a share of the public patronage. D. W. Shaver is again home after an absence of some time in Seattle Washington and other points. His wife, who has been quite sick at her home here, is improving.

A very handsome imported coach stallion has been on exhibit at the Red Front barn this week, having been brought from Ontario by parties who wish to sell him here. Mrs Robt. Irving brought her little son, Herbert, down from Harney Monday to have Dr. Geary readjust the cast on the little fellow's arm which was broken a couple of weeks ago. Henry Richardson took his departure Thursday morning for Portland where he will take in the fair. He will also visit other points and expects to be absent a month or six weeks. Austin Goodman wishes to remind the public that his gasoline wood saw machine will be in operation this season and he is ready to make contracts on sawing wood. He also has a first class grain chopper and does good work in this line. Call on him for prices.

Mose Schubener of the firm of Schubener Bros., of Andrews and Denio in the southern part of the county, spent the past week in this city, having come up on business before the county court. Mr Schubener reports that section of the county in a prosperous condition with fine crops, good grass and stock in first class condition. Thos. Slinger and Frank Slinger, father and son, were arrivals here on Wednesday's Canyon City stage. These gentlemen are residents of Portland at present but are late of Wisconsin and old time acquaintances of N. C. Hubbard. They are here to look over the country with a view to locating on land, homestead and timber. The Times-Herald is informed the Messrs Slinger are looking for suitable location for possibly 150 people who desire to take land. They have gone to the mountain home of Mr. Hubbard to visit a day or two before making a tour of this big valley.

Henry Welcome and wife left here Wednesday night on the out going Ontario stage, it having started about 11 o'clock on that trip instead of 2:30 in the morning. After a short visit with Mrs. Welcome's parents at Drewsey Henry will proceed to Tonopah and Goldfield, Nevada, where he expects to go into business at one or the other place and later be joined by his wife, who will remain at Drewsey for the present.

Married—At the Overland Hotel last Sunday evening Mr. John Culp to Miss Ollie Black. Justice Jameson performing the ceremony. Only the immediate friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony which was followed by an elegant supper. The contracting parties are among the most popular young people of this section and were recipients of many handsome presents. They start in life with the best wishes of a host of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Culp will occupy their neat cottage in East Burns. Sam Mothershead, Roy McGee and Dr. M. J. Gerdes, were passengers out on this morning's Canyon stage bound for Portland. The two former go to join their wives who are there visiting the exposition. The latter goes to attend the meeting of the state medical board for the purpose of taking the examination. Dr. Gerdes expects to be gone two weeks, the other fellows will likely remain in Portland until they "go broke" seeing the sights.

Dr. Geary made a professional visit to Buchanan's station the first of the week to see Leo, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Buchanan, who was suffering from what appeared to be spotted fever. The doctor found the patient suffering from a breaking out but it proved to be merely a rash and not serious. He left the patient improving. E. F. Purrington, who has been suffering from spotted fever, has improved since last Sunday. At that time his case was considered very serious as it had developed characteristics resembling diphtheria and Dr. Geary ordered the house quarantined. Robt. Reed was reached by phone at Lawen and came up to nurse the patient. Those in the home have not taken the disease and from present indications will not. Nevertheless the precaution of Dr. Geary was commendable and has the full approval of the inmates of the house and the general public.

A. A. Haydon is a late arrival here, having come on last Saturday's stage. He is recently from Baker City but his home is in Kentucky. Mr. Haydon is here for the purpose of locating if the country suits him and upon his decision depends several of his friends and relatives who contemplate coming. While Mr. Haydon has not yet looked over this section carefully he is very favorably impressed with this big valley and believes it has many advantages over other sections of Eastern Oregon, one of these being that water is so near the surface artificial irrigation is not necessary with proper cultivation of the soil. Mr. Haydon and Jay Gould left this morning for the vicinity of Wright's Point to look at some land.
