Fred Osakerman, accompanied by his brother-in-law, David Savage, is over from his Silver creek home. Mr Savage was among the first pioneers to locate in Harney valley coming here in 1881 but remained only two years. He is now on a visit and contemplates making his home in this county.

Dr. L. E. Hibbard is home from a trip to Portland and other points. He spent a few days at the fair and is well pleased with the Harney county exhibit and sees great possible results from its influence. Dr Hibbard was accompanied home by his brother Ollie, who comes to make his home in this county. The gentleman was most agreeably surprised upon getting his first view of Harney valley and states it is the greatest country in Oregon.

Dr. Tedrowe, J. W. Cooper, W. M. Dewey and Mr Richards were passengers out on Tuesday's Canyon stage. These gentlemen were from Cheyenne, Oklahoma and were enroute to the Lewis and Clark fair. They had been in correspondence with parties here and come this way to view the country with a view of locating. They consider Harney valley one of the most promising sections of the West and expressed their appreciation of the people of this city. As yet these gentlemen have not invested here, but have gone on to the fair most favorably impressed with this section.

Sheriff Allen and wife and son came home last Monday evening after an extended absence. Mrs. Allen and son Fred left here the latter part of May and have spent the time most pleasantly since visiting the fair at Portland and with relatives and friends in California. Mr. Allen was called to Carson City Nevada the first of July as a witness in the Federal court and from there he went to California and joined his wife. He had a visit with his sister whom he had not seen for over 20 years, besides other relatives, including Mart Baker and family. They spent a short time in San Francisco and a week or more in Portland while enroute home. Mr. Allen says the fair is very nice, indeed, and Harney county's health most attractive.

Frank Mogan arrived here on Wednesday's Ontario stage with the intention of staying. He informs us Brus Byrd has taken a position in the Argus office at Ontario. He and Plug certainly make a team and are a pair that the good people of that place should keep an eye on.

The new telephone line being constructed by M L Lewis has been completed to Silver creek and is being extended on to Buck creek. Since reaching Buck mountain Byron Terrill, Chas. Brittingham and A Dunn will take their families out with them to enjoy camp life during the heated period.

While playing yesterday afternoon little Dewey Robinson was quite badly hurt by receiving quite a gash on his forehead from a pump handle which Fredie Allen was using as a spade. The little fellows were digging a well and took "turns" at the work, using a pump handle for a spade. Dewey was anxious to do his part and was insisting on it being his turn before Fred had ceased and stepped in the way. It was purely accidental that he was struck by his industrious partner during the work.

Leon M Brown and bride arrived home Thursday evening and are at present the guests of Ben Brown and family. Leon states that he is glad to be at home again among his old time friends who welcomed him so warmly upon his return. He will at once begin the erection of a handsome cottage on a block in Brown's addition between the Catholic church and the A. S. Swain residence. Mrs Brown is well pleased with this section and feels sure she will be perfectly satisfied and happy in her new home. Leon is receiving the congratulations of his numerous friends on every hand in a manner that assures him of the high esteem in which he is held by people who have known him since boyhood. He reports his father in very good health.

PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon has notified me in writing that pursuant to the provisions of an act entitled "An Act making effective the initiative and referendum provisions of Section 1, Article 4 of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, and regulating elections thereunder and providing penalties for violations of provisions of this Act," approved February 24th, 1903, there was duly filed in his office on May 18th, 1905, a referendum petition containing 6,312 signatures properly attached thereto, and certified in accordance with law, ordering that House Bill Number 370, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses of the maintenance, repairs, improvements, equipment and current expenses of the Insane Asylum, Penitentiary, Reform, Deaf-Mute and Blind Schools, University, Agricultural College and Normal Schools, and other current expenses of the state, and declaring an emergency," passed by the Twenty-third Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon at its regular session of said Legislative Assembly, shall be referred to the people of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906; that said 6,312 signatures to said petition are more than five per cent of the whole number of votes cast for Justice of the Supreme Court at the last regular election.

Now, therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act hereinbefore mentioned, do hereby make and issue this proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, announcing that there has been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon a referendum petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached, ordering that House Bill Number 370, entitled "An Act to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses of the maintenance, repairs, improvements, equipment and current expenses of the Insane Asylum, Penitentiary, Reform, Deaf Mute and Blind Schools, University, Agricultural College and Normal Schools, and other current expenses of the state, and declaring an emergency," passed by the Twenty-third Legislative
