

BUSINESS MEN, NOTICE.

Believing that it is to the best interest of this city to make an active organization of the Burns Board of Trade and that it be re-organized, I request all business and professional men of Burns to meet at the City hall Wednesday evening Aug 23, at 7:30 for the purpose of discussing the matter.

Local News.

Dr. W. C. Brown, Dentist. Office upstairs in Voegtly building. Joe Wyatt the Diamond saloon man, spent the past week in this city.

J. L. Parrish arrived here last Monday coming by private conveyance from Lakeview. His wife came back from the fair by way of Baker City and is now visiting relatives in John Day.

J. H. Neal and daughter, Miss Mary were over from Happy Valley this week leaving for home yesterday. The Misses Ada and Mary will soon come in to be in readiness for the opening of the high school.

Chas Johnson and family and Cliff Reed are home from a several weeks visit to the fair. They report a fine time but Chas won't give any particulars. He says not to believe a word Sam Mothershead says.

Homer Reed and Ches Smith left Wednesday with their wives for Dixie mountain where they will camp and pick huckleberries. They will also visit Baker City and other points before returning.

Supt. Frank Cole is again at work with a crew of men on the new fair grounds and the work will now go forward without interruption. The race track will be put in shape for horses as soon as possible.

Road Master Varien was in Saturday. He has a crew of men now at work on Buck Mountain. He informs us it is impossible to do justice to the big territory over which he works during the season, unless he is given the privilege of running two crews of men.

Roy McGee has gone to Portland, so report goes, to purchase an automobile which will be used as a passenger car over this valley. Burns is fast becoming metropolitan and if this machine proves a success it will not be long before there are a number in use here.

Dr C W Merrill and J N Hunter the latter a brother of A. L. Hunter, came in from Bend last Saturday, starting on their return Monday. Both gentlemen have interests at Bend and merely came to see this section. They are well pleased with Harney Valley and may return here to locate at some future time.

Harry Smith wishes us to announce there will be two dances at Locher's hall during fair week one on Tuesday and the other on Friday night.

Mrs. M Fenwick expects to take her departure next Wednesday for Portland to take in the fair. She will be accompanied by her sister-in-law.

E. B. Reed and Dyke Jameson accompanied by their wives and Mrs. Chas. King, have gone to the mountains beyond Prairie city to rusticate and pick huckleberries

W. W. Dickenson and wife left yesterday morning for the railroad to take L. C. Hissorodt and family out. The latter have been visiting the Dickensons for several weeks and are now returning to their home near Los Angeles, California.

Parties desiring to give special premiums for fair week and wish them to appear in the premium list, should notify the secretary of the Fair Association at once, as the premium lists will be in the hands of the printer by the last of next week.

While preparing to leave the grist mill Thursday afternoon with a load of chop Dr. Horton's team ran away, turning the wagon over and breaking the reach. The team became detached from the wagon and ran into the wire fence cutting the horses quite badly though not deeply.

M. M. Brower, an attache of the U. S Pension Bureau, with headquarters at Seattle, spent some time in this office Thursday morning looking over the paper files. He is trying to find the date of the death of a man named Falkner who died in Silvie's valley some time in the early '90's.

Mrs Sam Mothershead and the Misses Lena Harkey and Ruby Burrow were passengers in on last night's Canyon stage. The two latter have been spending the vacation with relatives and friends and visiting the Lewis and Clark. Mrs Mothershead has been in Portland since the first of June having her eyes treated. They are much improved.

Henry Richardson and family are home from a visit to the fair. They had a fine time and Henry spent a couple of weeks in Seattle. He informs us the horse races at Portland did not amount to much as the authorities stopped the pool sales and the race men quit running. Sam Bailey was there with his horses but expected to go to California at once.

John McMullen left Thursday for Paulina where he will put up his photo tent for a short time. He expects to be absent from his gallery here about a month as he will visit Portland before returning where he will meet with photographers from all over the coast to a convention the first week in September. Mac proposes to keep up to date in the picture business and these trips always prove profitable to his many customers.

John H. Garrett the Emigrant Creek pioneer was a pleasant caller at this office Thursday morning. He had been down on his home a few days running up against old acquaintances and taking a little rest. "Uncle" John reports fat cattle and lots of fine hay on his place. He also informs us that Emigrant creek still flows a nice stream of water and we are of the opinion that most of the water reaching this valley is from that source.
