He says it might as well be a white elephant as a white faced bull, but Frank is "game" and will stay with his end of the bargain. He says the man that gets first premium over him at the next annual fair for Hereford bulls will have to do some rustling.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. MYERS.

After being confined to her bed only twelve hours, Mrs Dean Myers passed away at her home, Erie street, on Saturday night last. Deceased had been suffering from stomach trouble for some time but had not been confined to her bed until the day of her death. The funeral services were conducted at the house and at St Paul's church by the L. O. T. M. on Tuesday afternoon. The remains were placed in the vault at Perrysburg were the beautiful burial service of the Eastern Star was conducted by the local lodge. Members of both lodges were present in a body.—Advance Era.

INVESTIGATING MAIL ROUTES.

In response to the petition so numerously signed by patrons of the post office at this place as well as intervening points between here and the railroad, for a quicker mail service, the Postal Department has sent Mr F W Vaille here to investigate. The gentleman is now in this city looking into the matter and it may result in expediting the service and giving us a 36 hour winter schedule and a 30 hour summer schedule. This, however, is not certain at present and in fact will in no wise interfere with bids now advertised under the old schedule.

Should Mr Vaille recommend a quicker schedule and the Department acts favorably upon it a re-advertisement for bids will be made.
