LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Isaac Foster is in the city from Silver creek. Bently Bros are here with several loads of fruit from the Belshew orchard.

Parties are warned not to trespass upon Section 32 as they will be prosecuted. Frank Hackman.

John Budelman will arrive from Portland this afternoon. Mrs. Budelman and little son remained with her mother.

The Ladies' Afternoon Club is making preparations to stage another comic opera some time during the winter.

For the finest quality of English Surprise Seed Oats, Clear from foul seed and wild oats, also clean seed rye at 14 cents per pound, call on Chas. H. Davis, Harney City Oregon.

Some of the young people are talking of organizing a dancing and social club for the winter under similar rules as those in the past.

J. E. Wallace came in last evening from Portland where he had charge of Harney county's exhibit during the entire fair.

Our new Cash System has met with a cordial approval by the conservative purchasing people who lead to us every effort in advancing the new step forward in conducting our mercantile affairs.

Cattle buyers are still quite active in this county and the indications are that cattle growers will be able to dispose of what market stuff they have on hand at very reasonable prices.

The Oregonian quotes a number of prominent men of this state who think that Senator Mitchell and Congressman Herman and Williamson should resign.

The social committee of the Christian Endeavor arranged a pie social at the Presbyterian manse last Tuesday evening and sent out invitations to friends to spend Halloween with them and bring a nickel.

REO MOUNTAINEER.

Percy Megargle and his traveling companion, D. F. Fassett, arrived here last Monday evening in the Reo Mountaineer the big touring automobile in which they are making a trip from New York to San Francisco and return via Portland.

They have experienced many hardships since striking the Rocky Mountains and delayed at least a month behind the schedule made to start with.

The Reo Mountaineer is a much larger machine than the first one, but the working part of the machine is no higher from the ground, although the wheels are larger.

The heavy teaming between here and Ontario had caused the roads to be full of ruts and these were so filled with dust that the drivers could not see them.

These trips across the continent via Burns show the advantage of a through railroad by this point as the most direct and time saving and is no doubt being watched by railroad people.
