CUT THIS OUT.

The following comment and recipe was sent us by Fred Otley with a request to publish. Mr. Otley's family has been quarantined as a result of the scarlet fever epidemic at Lawton, and he states he had occasion to use it with most satisfactory results.

I herewith append a recipe which has been used to my knowledge in hundreds of cases and will prevent or cure the smallpox though the pitings are filling. When Jenner discovered a smallpox preventive in England the world of science hurled an avalanche of fame upon his head, but when the most scientific school of medicine in the world (that of Paris) published this recipe as a panacea for smallpox it passed unheeded.

Recipe for smallpox and scarlet fever Sulphate of zinc, one (1) grain; Foxglove (digitals), one (1) grain; one-half (1/2) teaspoonful of sugar; mix with two (2) tablespoonfuls of water; when thoroughly mixed add four (4) ounces of water. Take a spoonful every hour. Either disease will disappear in twelve hours.

Went Through the Globe

Among the hills of Silgo there is a small lake renowned in that region for its fabulous depth, and is told the following story concerning it: A well known professor, who was in that part of Ireland this summer, started one day for a mountain, accompanied by a native guide. As they climbed Pat asked him if he would like to see the lake, "for it's no bottom at all, sorr." "How do you know that, Pat?" asked the professor. "Well, sorr, I'll tell ye. Me own cousin was showin' the pond to a gentleman one day, sorr, and he look incredulous like, just as you do, and me cousin couldn't stand it for him to doubt his word, sorr, and so he said, 'I'll prove the truth of me words,' he said, and off with his clothes and into the water he jumped." The professor's face wore an amused and quizzical expression. "Yes, sorr, in he jumped, and didn't come up again, at all, at all." "But," said the professor, "I don't see that he proved the point by drowning himself." "Is it drowned? Devil a bit drowned at all he was. Sure, didn't a cable come from him next day in America, askin' for his clothes to be sent on?"

The "hero" immediately replied: "My friends, there is a traitor in the hall! Put him out!" -Harper's Weekly.
