Some one really ought to go to Washington and wake up me of the departments that they see where "they're at." One Secretary Hitchcock writes that it will be impossible to take up our irrigation projects for indefinite time, although many thousand acres are withdrawn for its purpose and tied up from settlement by reason of it.

The decision of E. L. Smith, a prominent Hood River fruit man, to enter the race for U. S. senator, seems to have struck terror to the hearts of the Portland machine men who consider the nation their special and exclusive plum.

Assessor Loggan informs The Times-Herald that he intends to value the real estate this year's roll but, personal property will likely be placed at out the same valuation as heretofore. Sheriff Allen states that he finds jurors loath to attend the April term of circuit court, some saying they positively will not come and the court may take what action it sees fit, as they prefer paying a fine rather than leave their stock under the circumstances. There is no doubt but stockmen would suffer a heavy loss if they do not take particular care of their stock and it would really be an imposition to compel them to leave them for jury duty. Mr. Allen called up Circuit Judge Davis by phone yesterday and talked over the situation with him. Judge Davis is inclined to be lenient and told the sheriff to use his own judgment in the matter. Several on the regular panel will be excused from duty and possibly court will merely convene and adjourn to some later date.
