The First National Bank of Burns, Oregon

Why a National Bank is the Best

REASON II: THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNING NATIONAL BANKS ARE VERY STRICT.

BANK: Because 95 per cent of the world's business is transacted on paper. Why not be in the 95 per cent class? We cordially invite you to become a patron of our institution, assuring you that your banking business, if entrusted to us, will receive prompt, careful and intelligent attention.

OLDEST, LARGEST AND ONLY NATIONAL BANK IN HARNEY COUNTY

Be sure to attend the Woodman ball on June 1st.

W. G. Bardwell is over from his home at Warm Springs.

Jasper Davis came over from Harney Thursday evening.

New freight for the furniture store has begun to arrive.

Paul Blume and Tim Donovan are down from their upper river homes.

Horsemen should see the pedigree of Fillmore Chief the trotting stallion.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Welcome Thursday morning, May 17, a daughter.

Ben Mutter has been over from Silver creek a few days. He left for home this morning.

The Woodmen of the World will give a dance at Locher's hall in this city on Friday, June 1.

Alfred Johnson and J. L. Hembree were among our visitors from Silver creek during the week.

Those knowing themselves indebted to J. L. Sitz are requested to call at the store at Lawen and settle on or before July 1st.

Newell Hall leaves today in company with James York and another horse buyer named Simms, for Baker City where they take horses for shipment.

Fillmore Chief, the handsome standardbred stallion will make the stand at the fair grounds in this city this season. Those interested should call on D. F. Hawley for particulars.

Miss Gussie Robertson is in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Thompson, having come up from Lawen yesterday where she has been closing up the old account books for J. L. Sitz.

Tom Cleveland and family came over from the Sod House Saturday, spending Sunday with relatives and friends and returning home Monday. During their visit Tom tried his luck at riding a certain lodge goat with no bad results.

J. H. Neal, the Happy Valley sheep man, is in the city for the purpose of taking his two daughters home for the vacation. Mr. Neal has been suffering from rheumatism a good portion of the spring and looks altogether like he had not wintered well.

J. A. Bartlett was over from Drewsey this week, having come over with a team for the purpose of moving the household goods of his son, J. C. Bartlett, back. He left yesterday afternoon and was accompanied by Curt and wife and also Mrs Henry Welcome and little son.

J. Frieman, accompanied by his little granddaughter, Regina Schwartz, left on Tuesday's stage via Canyon City for Juneau, Alaska, where they will spend a couple of months with relatives and friends. Ike and Mrs. Schwartz are now rather lonesome and are trying to borrow a baby from some of the neighbors.

Mrs. W. A. Goodman is suffering from spotted fever.

A 3¼ Mitchell wagon for sale. Inquire at this office.

Grant Reynolds was a visitor to our city during the week.

Dr. W. C. Brown, Dentist. Office in the new stone building north of the Post Office.

R. S. Settlemyre has been in from his ranch a few days nursing a severe attack of grip.

M. Dexter, representing the Bankers Life Association, has been in the city the past week.

If you wish to be located on a good homestead, see F. M. Jordan, the county surveyor.

J. L. Spencer was in the city yesterday to take his family to their ranch home for the vacation.

G. W. Clevenger has purchased W. C. McKinney's interest in the furniture business in this city.

A good six room residence and four lots, also a two seated covered hack for sale. Inquire of Mrs. Robt. Drinkwater, Harney Oreg.

Ben Newman was up from the Island ranch yesterday. Ben drives one of the best teams in the country and that counts too.

Watch the First National Bank ad for the next eight weeks for good and substantial reasons why a National Bank is best.

Simon Lewis is in receipt of a letter from W. M. Harvey, the Lakeview horse buyer, stating he will be here about the first of June to buy big horses and mules.

The cold snap of the present week has done some damage to fruit. It is not known to what extent the crop has been damaged at this time.

Dr. Marsden was called to Narrows Tuesday to see Mrs. Fred Brown. He found the lady quite sick but not serious and left her improving.

Frank Goodman is again in Burns visiting the scenes of his boy hood after an absence of several years. He will likely remain here permanently.

J. A. Robertson is looking after the shearing of a large number of sheep for the Wm. Hanley Co. The flock is being shorn by the Goodman machine.

This bank is pleased to place at the disposal of its customers the facilities gained during over twenty years of continuous service and growth—Harney County Bank.

Choice Surprise Valley dry land alfalfa seed can now be obtained of Simon Lewis at the Burns Livery and Feed Barn, or at N. Brown & Sons in this city.

Adam George can furnish you with nursery stock of any kind and quantity. He has nursery stock from the Blizzard belt section that people are invited to inspect. He still sells school furniture.

Ike Holland arrived home yesterday afternoon from a business trip to the railroad. When asked what he had been doing he said he had been building railroad. Mr. Holland was accompanied home by Miss Thebo, of Klondike, an old time school mate of Mrs. Holland's, who will spend some weeks visiting her.

Prof. D. W. Yoder, principal of the high school, took his departure this morning for Baker City. The Professor is undecided as to where he will spend the vacation. He may go east to visit his brother, or possibly to his old stamping grounds at Salem and Portland. He is well pleased with the work of the high school students during the past year the examination showing a good percentage.

Mrs. Stonewall Mothershead arrived here Wednesday evening from her home at Edmonds, Wash., having been summoned on account of the illness of her father, W. W. Johnson. While it is a matter of regret that she arrived too late to see her father, it is nevertheless a great comfort to her mother to have her daughter with her. Mrs Mothershead reports Stonewall well, also his mother, Mrs. Nancy Parker. Henry Cheatham has been suffering from ill health during the past winter and spring, but is improving. The lady's stay in our city is indefinite.

Frank Dibble was over from Silver Creek yesterday on land business.

Court Stenographer Coleman was a passenger out on the Canyon stage this week going to the latter place on court business.

Mrs. C. A. Byrd has a new consignment of millinery, including band trimmed hats. She also takes orders for tailormade wear for ladies.

Grant Thompson was in the city the first of the week on business and went home Monday. He returned again yesterday to take his family out to the ranch for the vacation.

The many old time friends of Miss Josie Locher will be pleased to learn that the young lady will soon be at home again. She will teach in the public schools the coming year, taking the room formerly presided over by J. C. Bartlett.

W. C. Byrd had the misfortune to fall down Sunday while coming from church and breaking his right arm near the wrist. The fracture was reduced by his physician and "Daddy" is trying to forget it. He was 64 years old two days before the accident happened and was really old enough to know better, but nevertheless has been sympathized with by his friends.
