 Roberta, the little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hibbard, was a passenger out on this morning's stage enroute to Portland where she will visit her grandmother and other relatives for two months.
 You want the best medicines that can be prepared, regardless of cost. Come to the City Drug Store with your prescriptions and you will always get it—and the cost will be reasonable and fair.
 Ora Hill and sister Julia are in the city from their ranch home. Miss Edie Hill has accompanied her Uncle M. B. Hayes, of Malheur county on a visit to the Claypool family.
 Several new people have arrived this week with the intention of locating upon government land. Among the late arrivals are Mr. Mendel and son of Montana and a Mr. Biddle, of Linn county, this state.
 K. G. Staples of Portland, and Chas. Russell of Spokane, came in by way of Prineville Tuesday evening and have gone to Narrows. Both gentlemen are friends of J. C. Turner, the land man, and are interested in the Harney valley.
 Elmer, little son of Mrs. Martha Ash, was thrown from a horse Thursday afternoon and an ugly gash some 2 1/2 inches in length cut in the back of his scalp. Although not serious it is quite painful. Dr. Geary dressed the wound.
 Dave Newman figured in a runaway last Tuesday in which he received a broken collar bone. He was driving the cook wagon for W. W. Brown's horse outfit at Wagon-tire where it occurred. Dr. Geary was called out and reduced the fracture.
 The Times-Herald will make this a bargain month in the way of subscriptions and has arranged to give the Semi-Weekly St. Louis Republic free to all who pay up arrears and one year in advance to The Times-Herald. New subscribers who pay in advance will also receive this great national semi-weekly newspaper and family magazine in the United States. The two papers one year for $2—for this month only.
