THE FARMERS INSTITUTE.

Dr. James Withycombe and Prof. Kinsely of the Oregon Agricultural College arrived in this city yesterday and will be in read iness to begin the farmers' institute Monday evening, July 2, at the Court House. The Times-Herald is sorry that President Newell of the State Board of Horticulture found it impossible to come at the last moment. This will be a disappointment to fruit growers, but we should bring Prof. Cordley "up out of the swamp" to take Mr. Newell s place. Horticulture will not be neglected at any rate and our farmers and stockmen will find this institute most profitable and instructive.

Dr. Withycombe has expressed himself as being delighted with our big, beautiful valley and predicts a great future.

Be sure to attend the institute --it is well worth any sacrifice upon the part of our people.

MORE RAILROAD PEOPLE.

Hon. J. K. Weatherford, of Albany, president of the Corvallis & Eastern Railroad, paid this city a flying visit last Monday, accompanied by G. W. Talbot, of Portland, both gentlemen leaving again the same evening for Lawen.

They gave out nothing to The Times-Herald for publication, but in conversation it was learned that they had come over from Albany on the C. & E. right-of-way and were following it through to Ontario. It is the impression that Mr. Talbot is connected with the Harriman railroads and that a sale of the old right-of-way is now under way. However, this is merely conjecture. Be that as it may, everything seems to point to immediate work on a transportation line into the great Harney country as there is much activity shown at this time.

Francis Bennett, a brother of our esteemed fellow-townsman B. P. Bennett, has been quite ill at the home of the latter the past few weeks. Two sons of the sick man, W. T. and James Bennett, arrived here last week from their homes in Washington to be with their father. Both young men are pleased with the Harney country and may decide to locate here.

A LOCAL "PUSH CLUB"

A mass meeting was held at the Court House Tuesday evening for the purpose of organizing a board of trade, development league, or something on that order, the object being to "boost" the Great Harney Country and assist in bringing in new people and otherwise promote the development of the county. Incidentally the organization will look after the interests of Burns in any manner possible and to take up the matter of a railroad particularly. Burns is going to be on the railroad—that can be posted in your hat.

A temporary organization was effected and a committee consisting of Ben Brown, J. L. Gault, I. Schwartz, Dr. W. L. Marsden and Julian Byrd was appointed to outline plans and make recommendations for a permanent organization. A meeting will be held at the Court House on July 10, to perfect plans, etc. Every property owner and citizen of Burns is urged to be present at this meeting.

"BIRDS AND BUGS"

A. R. Cordley, professor of Zoology and Entomology and his assistant Prof. W. T. Shaw, of the Oregon Agricultural College, arrived here overland Wednesday evening accompanied by Fred Griffin, a student of that institution. These gentlemen came across the Cascade mountains by way of Prineville and will spend some time in the vicinity of Harney and Malheur lakes. They are on a collecting tour securing specimens of "birds and bugs." The party spent Thursday in this city and expressed surprise and delight upon finding such a valley as we have, and especially the great variety of vegetables, fruit, etc., we produce and are experimenting with.

Prof Cordley visited a number of gardens and young orchards in this city and stated that our plants look much healthier and we had greater variety than in Corvallis. His attention was called to the green aphis, practically the only pest with which we have to contend and it was certainly a relief to those interested in growing ornimental shrubs and fruit to find the aphis was not so serious as we may think.

The party hoped Dr. Withycombe and his associates would reach here Thursday evening, but as they did not, they departed for the lakes yesterday morning.
