Messrs. J. A. Maddux and Manie Fitchett arrived here Wednesday evening from Ontario with their families. Mr. Fitchett was most agreeably surprised to find the excellent crops on every hand and surprised to find any fruit at all, as when he and his party left here the fore part of June the weather was anything but favorable to crops and the freezes he thought would put an end to any fruit prospects whatever. Mr. Maddux will locate some land in a few days if he can find any to suit him. They are enthusiastic regarding the future of the Harney country as an agricultural district and will begin farming at once.

Following are the applicants who are taking the teachers' examination for certificates: Mrs. Mary Bain, of Harney, primary certificate; Misses Lena Harver, Josyphine Locher, State certificates. Those for county certificates are Misses Mary Oley, Elma Marshall, Mable Hibbard, Merle Dalton, Annie George, Effie Terrill and Mr. J. E. Graves. The examining board consists of Supt. Rigby, Prof. H. A. Dillard and Rev. A. J. Irwin.
W. L. Blott, recently of Los Angeles, California, arrived here Thursday with the intention of locating and looking up some land for friends. He had received some information about the Harney country which seemed too good to be true, but after seeing our valley is convinced that our descriptive pamphlets were not colored in the least and we have even better than represented. Mr. Blott is a very pleasant gentleman and has the appearance of being just the kind of man to make a good citizen.

John Biggs took one of his famous trotters out Thursday morning with the intention of taking a lady friend out for a ride and incidentally to meet his brother Dalton over at Bear valley and bring him to Burns. He made Bear valley all right but took a cut off through the mountains coming back to make time. He lost his way and finally reached Frank Metchan's about 3 o'clock yesterday morning. This is a secret, however, and we ask his friends to say nothing about it.
Mr. J. C. Garrett arrived here from her home in Washington some two weeks ago. The pencil pusher of this great religious wrote a local to this effect at the time, but it failed to get into type from some oversight. The Times Herald takes special pleasure in mentioning old time people like Mrs. Garrett, for she has many old time friends throughout Eastern Oregon, who will be pleased to hear of the lady being in good health. She is at present visiting her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren in this county.
