The Times-Herald may have more information regarding this matter next issue.

A letter to W. P. Weiss from Prineville, states that Mrs. S. W. Miller died on the night of August 16 from heart failure brought on by paralysis.

Sarah C. Miller was the daughter of J. M. and Nancy Coon, and was born in Linn County, Oregon, March 14, 1849.

Deceased was an aunt to W. P. Weiss of this place. She leaves a husband and one daughter who have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in this county.

IT HAD BETTER HURRY UP.

David Eccles, president, and H. H. Spruce, director, Ogden, of the Sumpter Valley railroad, and Joseph West, chief engineer, arrived in this city yesterday and it is said on good authority they will proceed today over the line to make an inspection with a view to extending the road through Grant county into Burns.

Henry Richardson and Ed Moore returned home Thursday evening from a trip to the new mining strike. Each staked off a claim, but do not seem very enthusiastic over the prospects, although the camp has some merit.

G. W. Clevenger has the most extensive and well selected stock of wall paper ever seen in this county. The variety and design, as well as quality are all that one could desire.
