Next Monday is clean-up day.
 Carrol Cecil was in this city last Saturday and Sunday.
 If you wish to be located on a good homestead, see F. M. Jordan.
 Whoever beats Mrs. C. G. Smith's corn at the fair has a prize winner.
 If you want to sell your ranch or farm see Archie McGowan the land man at once.
 Miss Cassie Johnson, of Drewsey is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Clevenger.
 Miss Mary Byram is spending a month with relatives and friends in Grant county.
 You'll miss it if you don't come in and see my late invoice of shoes.—James Smith.
 Mrs. A. L. Vanderpool and mother, Mrs. J. C. Garrett, were in from Silver creek during the week.
 Mrs. Henry Welcome and little son have returned from Drewsey and are now at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Welcome.
 L. Woldenberg and little daughter Freda, are expected home next week after a six weeks absence visiting relatives in New York.
 Infant shoes, half-shoes, tan, patent leather, etc. in all sizes and the very latest styles—come and see them.—James Smith.
 Mesdames E. J. Lampshire and W. Y. King together with the "kids" are going camping at Myrtle park next week.
 Mrs. I. H. Holland and daughter Gladys and Miss Thebo left Thursday for Vale. They will visit several other points before returning home.
 A Venator is over from his Crane Creek home for a few days. He informs us his haying crew is now busy in the fields near Saddle Butte.
 Mrs. Hattie Hastie has moved her stock of Millinery and Notions into the building just east of the Windsor and is prepared to trim in the latest styles. Call and see her.
 Hank Felton came in the first of the week from the P. L. S. Co., White Horse ranch where he went to get King Ora, a trotting stallion. King Ora is a handsome old fellow and will make a good showing at the races during the fair.
 J. F. Mahon came over from Anderson Wednesday accompanied by Miss Bertha Williams who has been visiting with the family there for several weeks. Jim and the lady folk had just returned from a fishing trip and he had some big fish stories, but they're copyrighted and we dare not publish them.
 T. K. and George Hibbard brought back a nice lot of trout from Emigrant creek and very kindly remembered The Times-Herald family. They left immediately again with Dr. Hibbard and the latter's three children for Standliff creek where they hope to find some shooting as well as fishing of their own.

Tom Bain and son were in the city yesterday.
 Chas. Owen was down from Silver during the week.
 Dr. W. C. Brown, Dentist. Office in the new stone building north of the Post Office.
 The many friends of W. E. Trisch are pleased to see him again on the streets after a long illness.
 Look Out—Get the safety incubator, now it runs without a lamp. See W. T. Smith about it, Burns Oregon.
 Rev. A. B. Minaker and wife and little son are again at home after spending some time on an outing at Camp creek.
 Fancy Duck Blutch Oxords for men, women and children—something neat and up to date.—James Smith.
 Mrs. Geo. Shelley and daughter Lea have gone over to Crane creek for a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends.
 Dr. Burrow and wife and daughter, Miss Clayte, took their departure Tuesday for a few days outing in the Stein's Mountain.
 F. E. Bramlet, the man who turns out those handsome hand-made silver mounted bits and spurs, has an ad in this issue.
 Parties are hereby notified to refrain from trespassing upon my farm north of Burns. I shall prosecute any person found trespassing.
 Geo. STANCLIFF.
 Post Master Welcome, L. M. Brown and W. E. Trisch and families will make up a party of jolly campers that will leave next week for Bear creek.
 Sheriff Richardson and party are home from their trip to the high hills. Lon says his hack was loaded down with huckle berries, but we're from Missouri.
 D. F. Hawley and son Douglas have gone to southern Oregon and parts of California where Mr. Hawley has entered Fillmore Chief in races throughout that circuit.
 Front quarter Beef 5c any cut over 20 lbs; off front quarter 6c; rump 6c; round steak 3 lb 25c; chuck steak 3 lb 25c; tallow 5c. Veal, pork and mutton always on hand at City Meat Market.
 C. G. Smith is laid off from work on account of a bad knee which necessitated an operation. The trouble is called "housemaid's knee" by the medical fraternity. Mrs. Smith had better keep her eye on Chip.
 Miss Pauline Locher left yesterday morning for Buck creek where she will spend two weeks visiting the A. L. Mackintosh family. Her sister, Miss Jose, will have charge of the central telephone office during Miss Pauline's absence.
 WAGE EARNERS—We have carried the accounts of wage earners for nearly a quarter of century and want them to know we appreciate their business large or small.
 LEON M. BROWN,
 Cashier, Harney County Bank

A friend of the Claypools at Vale sent a notice of the death of Miss Bertha Claypool which appears on the first page. While her death was not a surprise to friends here it was nevertheless sad, as the young lady was highly esteemed by numerous friends here.
 County Clerk Mothershead, Treasurer Dalton and Deputy Sheriff Terrill and families and Misses Maudie Miller and Delta Dillard constituted a party which left here Thursday morning for an outing in the mountains. They will likely go to some point in Grant county and this great religious would advise the forest rangers to keep an eye on them and local residents of that neck of the woods to lock their hen houses.
 During the severe electrical storm last Sunday afternoon a hay stack was struck by lightning at the Fred Denstedt house six miles east of this city and completely destroyed by fire. The amount of hay is not definitely known. A brother of Mrs. Denstedt's was shocked by the bolt of lightning but not seriously hurt. This is the first instance in many years where lightning has caused any damage in the valley, but instances of trees and high points in the mountains being struck are not infrequent.
