JULIAN BYRD - - - - - Manager UP-TO-DATE FARMER.

Farming and farmers of America are up-to-date or they are nothing. Farming is fast coming to be the only really luxurious life.

Back in Wisconsin on election day, John Hendricks, a rich farmer went to the town of Hendricks to vote.

The constable knew the man and concluded there was no use of driving out into the country after him, so he called him up over the telephone and asked him to come up to town and answer to the charge.

The farmer told him he was too busy and demanded a trial by telephone, the trial was held, the witnesses being examined and cross questioned over the 'phone and the farmer was found guilty and fined $5, which he sent to town that evening by the rural mail carrier.—Ex.
