JULIAN BIRD - - - - - Manager

The Times-Herald has passed another milestone and this issue begins its twentieth year.

The present management has been identified with this great religious weekly almost continually since the '80's and has seen not only the paper improve, but also Burns and the entire country.

It would appear that the policy of the interior department in creating forest reserve is greatly hampering the stock industry of this state.

While this policy for the protection of the forest and timber may be sound and advisable yet the question naturally arises: What are we going to do with our thousands of acres of sagebrush and bunchgrass lands that cannot, under any circumstances, be used for any purpose except winter grazing?

Twenty-two dollars per head for yearling heifers is a high price to pay, but according to Ben Swaggart, of Heppner, who recently returned from Montana, that price was paid last week in that state for 100 Montana raised yearlings.

Mr. Swaggart stated that these cattle were not extra fine, but good range stock and in good condition.

That this price was paid in Montana tends to show conclusively that better prices will be realized next year by Oregon cattle growers.

NO TRESPASSING. Notice is hereby given that hunting and shooting upon the enclosed lands of the American Land & Live Stock Co. is strictly forbidden.

Any person or persons found hunting or trespassing will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

E. B. HILL, Ranch Manager.

The Morgan Mercantile Company, adjusters and collectors of the Fenton Bldg., Portland, Oregon, are earnestly striving to discredit the stigma that is generally applied to collecting agencies.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL. Job printing—The Times-Herald. "The Busy Corner" has something new in its ad. Read it.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oakerman came over from their Silver Creek home today.

The snow has become so deep in the Bear Valley section that stockmen have begun feeding.

C. H. Leonard is out in the Wellcomeville section looking after some improvements on his ranch.

Parties are hereby notified to refrain from trespassing upon my farm north of Burns. I shall prosecute any person found trespassing.
