JULIAN BYRD, Manager

The following from the Prairie City Miner may be applicable in some respects to this place:

The scarcity of wood this winter naturally suggests the fuel problem and how it will be solved. The restrictions of the forest reserve have put a price on wood in the tree, a condition hitherto unknown here, and either a superabundance of prosperity or a feeling of unprecedented emergency has made the wood chopper as scarce as thousand dollar greenbacks.

THE PACIFIC MONTHLY IN 1907

will be, more than ever, the great magazine of the West—our West, your West, God's country. With brush and pen its staff of contributors will depict the best of the West from Alaska to the Canal Zone; from the Missouri River to the Philippines.

The best writers have been called upon to describe faithfully and interestingly the various marvels of the West. In the January, February, March and April issues of the Oregon trail, the Pueblos of the Southwest, the sheep ranges of Oregon, the great romance of Twin Falls, the undiscovered resources of Yaquina Bay, the unexplored coast of Washington will receive brilliant treatment.

Western bird-life will be treated for the first time adequately and beautifully in every issue by William L. Finney, Herbert Bohlman, W. Leon Dawson and L. W. Brownell. Nothing so exhaustive has ever before been attempted by a magazine.

History by its makers will not be neglected. Millard F. Hudson, Edward Holtzheimer, Fred A. Hunt ("Mossagate Bill") are among them.

Essays, literary criticism and dramatic reviews by William Winter, C. E. S. Wood, Porter Garnett, Austin Lewis and many others will give our readers the best in these fields.

Nothing so beautiful as the Pacific Monthly will be in 1907 will be found on the news stands. The best that paper-mill, ink-grinder, typefounder and engraver can produce will dress the magazine.

These are some of the things which will go toward The Pacific Monthly, the magazine of the Western American—a magazine equal to the best anywhere.

Every Heart-Ache

Every pain in the breast, difficult breathing, palpitation, fluttering or dizzy spell means that your heart is straining itself in its effort to keep in motion. This is dangerous.

Some sudden strain from over-exertion or excitement will completely exhaust the nerves, or rupture the walls or arteries of the heart, and it will stop.

Relieve this terrible strain at once with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. It invigorates and strengthens the heart nerves and muscles, stimulates the heart action, and relieves the pain and misery.

Take no chances; make your heart strong and vigorous with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. "I suffered terribly with heart disease, have been treated by different physicians for my trouble without result. I went to a physician in Memphis who claimed that I had dropsy of the heart. He put the X-ray on me, and in connection with his medicine he came near making a finish of me. Some time before this a Mr. Young, of St. Louis, was in our town. He saw my condition, and recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure to me. I gave it his attention until my return from Memphis, when I concluded to try it, and am pleased to say three bottles cured me."

DR. MILES' HEART CURE is sold by your druggist, will guarantee that the first bottle will relieve you if it fails, he will refund your money. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
