JULIAN BYRD - - - - Manager

A man with a mania for answering advertisements has had some interesting experiences. He learned that by sending $1 to a Yankee he could get a cure for drunkenness. And he did. It was to "take the pledge and keep it."

Then he sent 50 cents to find out how to raise turnips successfully. He found out: "Just take hold of the tops and hit."

Being young he wished to marry and sent 34 1-cent stamps to a Chicago firm for information as to how to make an impression. When the answer came it read: "Sit down in a pan of dough."

The next advertisement he answered read. "How to double your money in six months." He was told to convert his money into bills, fold them and thus double his money in six months

Next he sent for 12 useful household articles and got a package of needles.

He was slow to learn, so he sent $1 to find out "how to get rich." "Work hard and never spend a cent." That stopped him.

But his brother wrote to find out how to write without pen and ink. He was told to use a lead pencil.

He paid $1 to learn how to live without work and was told on a postal card: "Fish for easy marks, as we do."—Hardware Reporter.

The story, hatched in some fertile brain, that Hearst, Harriman and Rockefeller have entered into a combine and raised a $5,000,000 fund to defeat Roosevelt, is plain politics and too silly to be given a moment's serious thought, at least so far as one of the members charged is concerned. William Randolph Hearst may be all that has from time to time been charged to him, but he is hot so ignorant of his interests as to combine with Harriman and Rockefeller after spending years in posing as the friend of the working classes as against the moneyed interests and trusts. What could he hope to gain by such a move?—Ontario Argus.

When the lecturer inquired dramatically, "Can any one in this room tell me of a perfect man?" there was a dead silence. "Has anyone," he continued, "heard of a perfect woman?" Then a patient looking little woman in a black dress rose up at the back of the hall: "There was one. I've often heard of her, but she's dead now. She was my husband's first wife."

Half the World Wonders

how the other half lives. Those who use Bucklen's Arnica Salve never wonder if it will cure cuts, wounds, burns, sores and all skin eruptions; they know it will. Mrs. Grant Shy, 1130 E. Reynolds St., Springfield, Ill. says: "I regard it one of the absolute necessities of housekeeping." Guaranteed by City Drug Store. 25c.

Every Heart-Ache

Every pain in the breast, difficult breathing, palpitation, fluttering or dizzy spell means that your heart is straining itself in its effort to keep in motion. This is dangerous.

Some sudden strain from overexertion or excitement will completely exhaust the nerves, or rupture the walls or arteries of the heart, and it will stop.

Relieve this terrible strain at once with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. It invigorates and strengthens the heart nerves and muscles, stimulates the heart action, and relieves the pain and misery.

Take no chances; make your heart strong and vigorous with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

"I suffered terribly with heart disease. I have been treated by different physicians for my trouble without results. I went to a physician in Memphis, who claimed that I had dropsy of the heart. He put the X-ray on me, and in connection with his medicine he came near making a finish of me. Some time before this a Mr. Young, of St. Louis, was in our town. He saw my condition, and recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure to me. I gave it little attention until my return from Memphis, when I concluded to try it, and am pleased to say three bottles cured me.
CHARLES GOODRICH.
Caruthersville, Mo.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.
