

One Year... Three Months...

UP AGAINST THE TRUST.

On account of the very material advance in all classes of paper within a short time past...

WHO PAYS FOR IT?

A friend, formerly from the south, called at this office last Monday and during our general visit and discussion of various topics...

The trust has succeeded to the terms of the planter and is paying him more for his cotton...

This is but one instance of the methods used to make the cost of living higher and it all falls on the consumer...

The suggestion to stop improvement, or rather the construction of a plant with which to irrigate out at the cemetery...

The re-election of Dr. Harry Lane as mayor of Portland last Monday is another victory for the independent voter...

fairs we have no use for politics, as the man is what we are looking for. This is the proper way to look at such matters...

If those Washington shepherms who are kicking would come over here and see what the authorities are doing to local flocks...

The Denver News may be right in the assertion that settlement and cultivation has nothing to do with changing climatic conditions...

DOES IT EVER RAIN HERE?

A good three-fourths of an inch of rain in less than forty minutes is what we experienced here last Tuesday noon...

This section had been needing rain for sometime and The Times-Herald man had been considering the proposition of negotiating with the rain maker...

Seriously, though, the rain was much needed and was a great boon to growing crops. Many new settlers were asking the question "Does it ever rain here?"...

The most wetness was opportunity in more than one respect. It made the old settler's word good, it made crops good...

Chief Stradley and his corps of draftsmen and clerical help in the office left Wednesday morning for Lakeview where they will establish headquarters...

If you intend to build see Adam George. He will furnish you plans, specifications, doors, windows and hardware for about half what windows formerly cost...
