JULIAN HYRD - - - - - Manager

A number of stockmen, including J. H. Anderson, R. Drake and others, of the Calamity and Pine creek sections, have hit upon a plan to beat the forest reserve permit system.

The Times-Herald man met a gentleman this week who is familiar with early conditions in Surprise valley, in Northern California.

Elizabeth Jacobs of Washington is authority for the statement that while it costs the government $2,000,000 a year to maintain the forest service, only $400 a year is actually expended in planting trees.

MAKE P RANCH HEADQUARTERS.

Wm Hanley arrived home Thursday from an extended visit to various points a part of the time being spent at Ontario supervising the shipment of several hundred head of cattle belonging to the Wm. Hanley Co.

Mr. Hanley states that he expects to make the P. Ranch headquarters for the company and as general manager he will take up his residence there.

HARNEY COVERS BIG TERRITORY.

A trip of 300 miles to attend to some land business is a jaunt that Herman Acty will have made when he again reaches home and still he will have traveled altogether in Harney county.

the county and came in Wednesday accompanied by George Penlan and Jerry Marsh. Although Mr. Acty has resided on his homestead there 18 years and the writer has lived in this part of the county for 24 years, they met for the first time Thursday.

Even old timers are somewhat astonished at the magnificent distances in this county and it is not surprising that outside people fail to realize its great territory.

With the coming of transportation lines and the settlement of its millions of acres of vacant government land Harney county will indeed be an empire.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

W. M. Harvey, the Lakeview horsebuyer, is here.

John Crisman is renewing acquaintances in our city.

If you are going to plant garden get your onion sets and seeds at Vogt's. 15 cents per pound while they last.

Mrs. Hattie Hastie will have a new lot of hats, flowers & trimmings for the 4th in a few days also ladies vests, etc.

Jason Bennett has been in the city from his home at Nine mile slough for several days. He is suffering from rheumatism and is here to be near his physician.

Mrs. Adam George wishes us to announce that the berry season is now on and that people are invited to come out and pick them off at 20 cents a gallon.

Eleven mining locations were received for record at the clerk's office the last mail from Denio. This would indicate that the Pueblo mining district is still booming and will be heard from later.

Hon. C. W. Parrish was quite ill for a few days after his arrival home with his old complaint. He was again about the streets yesterday but last night suffered a relapse and is confined to his rooms.

P. R. Bevis and B. F. Huggins, two young men of Lewiston Idaho, arrived here Wednesday for the purpose of looking over the country with a view of investing. They are well pleased with this section at this time.

Robt. Adams, representing Adams & Co., of Pendleton, is buying quite a band of cattle in the upper John Day valley. He is paying $21 for cows and $26 for two-year-old steers and expects to have a band of about 500 head for shipment by the first of September.—Blue Mt. Eagle.

Rev. S. W. Seemann and wife, of Union, arrived here Wednesday on a visit to John Gemberling and family. Mrs. Seemann is a sister to Mr. Gemberling. Rev. Seemann will occupy the pulpit at the Presbyterian church next Sunday both morning and evening. The reverend gentleman is off on a vacation, but upon invitation of our local pastor, Rev. Irwin, will preach in his stead.

Peter Scheiltz was in the other day and says the recent article published in this great religious clipped from an outside paper regarding a Peter Schiltz was evidently meant for him, but the name was mixed. Peter says it was a mistake about his sending for a wife or losing $40. He had been in correspondence with the woman that was arrested, but had only sent her $5 because he felt sorry for her.
