Had Harriman only given us the tip that he would make a trip through the Central Oregon...

From every point in the north-west comes reports of exceedingly cold weather for this time of year.

'Uncle Joe' Cannon says he is not a candidate for the presidency, as he is too busy looking after the next session of congress...

The trip of E. H. Harriman, the railroad wizard, through what the Portland papers term the central and eastern Oregon section...

Thursday was one of the happiest days in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Parker, the old pioneer residents who have made their home in this section since 1881.

Including Mr. and Mrs. Parker there were 65 people sitting down to dinner in a beautiful arbor that had been arranged in the orchard...

It was an event long to be remembered by those assembled and it is not likely there could be found another such family that live within a day's drive of each other.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

J. M. Merritt was over from Busk Creek yesterday after supplies for the W. W. Brown ranches.

N. P. Biddle was in the city yesterday from his ranch near Crook Camp.

C. E. Lintacum who was confined to his bed for several days last week threatened with typhoid fever, has regained his health and again at his place of business.

Carrol Cecil and family passed through here yesterday enroute to Ontario. Mr. Cecil is taking out 250 head of horses for delivery at the railroad and Mrs. Cecil and daughters will go by rail from there to Portland to spend the winter.
