We hope to see exhibits of every kind of Harney county products from all parts...

The Times-Herald is pleased to note the substantial improvements being made by several of our farmers in this neighborhood.

Homeseekers continue to pour into the Harney country at a very rapid rate and the land office is kept quite busy.

The many grain fields throughout this section present a very busy scene these days with the threshing machines at work in every direction.

New Orders to Land Office Officers.

A Washington dispatch says: Land Commissioner Ballinger has issued an order requiring registers and receivers of local land offices to prepare applications to make entries and filings on public lands whenever so requested by prospective entrymen.

END OF CATTLE BUYING TRUST.

For the first time in 10 years the agreement alleged to exist between Carstens Brothers of Seattle, and the Union Meat company of Portland, has been broken.

The Seattle firm invaded the territory monopolized by the Portland company last week and bought up all the cattle of Crook county at higher prices than were offered by the Union Meat company.

Will Wurzeiler, a merchant of Prineville, stated at the Imperial hotel today that the Seattle company bought 2500 head of cattle in Crook county last week, paying from $2.50 to $3.00 for steers.

"This means," said Mr. Wurzeiler, "that the agreement between these companies whereby Carstens Bros. bought only in the Yakima country and the Union Meat company in Oregon without either firm invading each other's territory, is broken.

weiler, "that the agreement between these companies whereby Carstens Bros. bought only in the Yakima country and the Union Meat company in Oregon without either firm invading each other's territory, is broken.

"In fact, prices are up now. Lambs sold at $3.25, Wethers at $3, while I know of one man who was offered $5.25 for yearling ewes and refused because he could get a better price.

"Carstens Bros. not only bought cattle in Crook county, but went over into Grant county, which shows that they no longer consider the Oregon country as belonging solely to the Union Meat company.

PRINEVILLE FAIR POSTPONED

Owing to the fact that many turfmen were unable to get their horses to Prineville for the races during the coming fair, the date has been changed to October 24, 25, 26, 28, 29.

ANOTHER MATINEE AT FAIR GROUNDS.

Arrangements have been completed for another matinee and band concert at the fair grounds on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 29. This date meets with the approval of several business men who close their business houses on Sunday and the boys out in the country.

There will be three races at least, and possibly more. The trotting event will this time have three entries which will add interest. A saddle horse race for untried horses for a $20.00 purse under the same conditions as last Saturday.

Dr. Marsden was called to the Horton & Sayer sawmill last night where he found the five-year-old daughter of J. W. Lichtenberger suffering from scarlet fever.

The Misses Mary and Edith Harrison were over from Drzewy Tuesday making proof on their homesteads. They were accompanied by Mrs. August Muller who assisted them.

Geo. Howe, one of the energetic and public spirited farmers of Calamity, was in the city a few days during the week. Mr. Howe brought over seven varieties of grain for display at the county fair next month.

Prineville has postponed the fair at that place, making the dates Oct. 24 to 28 instead of Oct. 15 to 19 as formerly advertised. This will allow horses to participate in the speed events here and at Prineville also. It is best for all concerned.

Job printing—The Times-Herald

Some of the finest potatoes raised this season were grown in the yard of A. Schenk on the hill. Adam George was in Tuesday with a nice lot of those fine crab apples for which his orchard has become famous.

Dean Horton was over from Diamond on a visit to U. M. Horton and looking after business the first of the week.

Stockmen of the Harney country have no kick coming about hard times with cattle, sheep and horses at present prices.

W. J. Reilly, a painter and paper hanger, of Western Oregon, is here. Mr. Scott obtained work at once and will remain here permanently.

"Judith" the mother of Frank Cole's "Harold Welcomes," did not start in the 234 trot at the state fair Wednesday. The mare was entered but no account is given of her being in the race.

C. W. Holloman, a Baptist minister, of Grass Valley, Sherman county, was in the city last Sunday and occupied the pulpit twice. He left for his home Wednesday morning but may return to locate permanently.

Tom Cleveland came over from Sod House Saturday and spent a few days in this city. He states he has been kept quite busy during the season harvesting hay crops on various ranches of the Wm. Hanley Co.

Our old friend G. W. Mace arrived home last Friday night from a hurried visit to Idaho points where he was the guest of relatives. He expects soon to take his departure for Pearl, Idaho, with the intention of spending the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Charles Charleston.

The matinee last Saturday afternoon at the fair grounds was thoroughly enjoyed by those who attended. The boys in charge of the trotting horses were short of equipment and could only put two paces out for preliminary. I. H. Holland's "Icy" and Frank Cole's "Harold Welcomes" were sent two heats, making the first in 2:54 and the second in 3 flat. The latter took both heats. In the saddle horse race there were 9 entries and it was a race from the start. Lute Parker's horse took first money and a horse belonging to Arthur Turner ran second. A match race between "Corbett" belonging to Cal Clemens and Mel Parker's "Bally" was pulled off with "Corbett" coming under the wire first. The boys are anxious for another matinee between now and fair week.

Here is a paragraph which the exchanges are passing around: Every dollar in your pocket says to you: "If you'll let me stay in this town I'll circulate around and do lots of good. You buy a big breakfast with me and the butcher will buy groceries, and the grocer will buy dry goods, merchant will pay his doctor bill with me, and the doctor will spend me for oats for his horse, and the farmer will pay his subscription to the editor of the local paper, and the editor will pay for his last summer trousers and buy a pair of socks. In the long run you see, I'll be more useful to you here at home than if you'd send me away."
