For Homestead Locations see M. FitzGerald the pioneer Land Locator of Harney County.

Dr. H. S. Brown and wife were in the city a few days during the week. They were over to file on timber land that was thrown out of the reserve and Wednesday morning was the earliest that filings could be made. A few others were also desirous of securing timber and some of them took position at the entrance of the land office the night before for fear of a rush and conflicting applications. However after comparing notes the following morning they found they had lost sleep for nothing and each secured the coveted piece of timber.

ESTRAYED—A span of brown mares from my ranch near Warm Springs. Branded half circle 5 on left stifle, the other bar 11 on left stifle. Weigh about 1050 each. $10 reward for their return either to my place or the Red Front Barn, Burns.

Rev. B. F. Harper, of Milton, who has been here for several weeks to relieve Rev. A. J. Irwin in his work at the Presbyterian church, will leave for his home Monday. Rev. Harper is a very pleasant gentleman and has made many new friends during his short stay.

A. J. Edwards of Sheridan, Wyoming and M. Harvey of Chicago, were passengers in on the Vale stage Tuesday evening. These gentlemen came with the intention of locating if every thing suits them. They are very favorably impressed with the valley and contemplate going to work in this section for a while before locating.

The Presbyterian church is to undergo some interior improvements at once. The choir is to have a new loft, or rather, the entire rostrum to themselves, and a new platform built for the pastor. A new organ had been ordered that will add to the musical part of the service. It is an instrument with pipe organ effect that is exceptionally good. The instrument comes from the Wise Piano house of Boise and will be here during the fair with other instruments that will be exhibited.

E. P. Rawson and J. L. Stenger of Vancouver, Wash., were in Thursday making application to purchase timber in the Silver creek section. They were accompanied by Henry Chapin. Mr. Rawson and Nollie Reed are school friends.

Tom Arnold, who had the misfortune to get his ankle badly sprained last week, is able to be on the streets. It is a good thing for Tom had been neglecting his duties as side kicker to the manager of this great religious weekly.

E. L. Barnett, an experienced electrician, arrived here Tuesday evening and has taken charge of the electric light plant. The lights were turned on Thursday night for the first time this month and dispelled some of the gloom that was so apparent before.

A. O. Faulkner, the civil engineer, arrived home Thursday from an extended trip to Lake county where he has been at work for several weeks. Mr. Faulkner states there are two or three irrigation projects contemplated in that county that will reclaim an aggregate of over 75,000 acres of land. The plans are being perfected for these projects but actual work will possibly not begin until next spring. Mr. Faulkner expects his brother here tomorrow or next day to assist him in his work. The brother is a practical civil engineer and a graduate. Mr. Ray Young has retired from the firm and secured a transfer from the field work with the railroad survey to the general office at Salt Lake.
