JULIAN HYRD - - - - - Manager

One of the best pleased visitors to the fair this week was Mr. Joseph Barton, former superintendent of the Sumpter Valley railway. Mr. Barton was one of Gov. Chamberlain's party at the fair last year and was most agreeably surprised at the magnificent display of the products of Harney county. This year he sees a better exhibit than last year's variety, improved in quality and covering a larger range. Even though this year's exhibits are an improvement over last year's several who say they have better produce to show and there are products of Harney County soil not represented at all. This is through indifference upon the part of some and lack of time to get the exhibits here and in place upon the part of others.

The same may be said of live stock. We have many registered and imported stallions (and cattle as well) that are not entered for competition for premiums. The grades are quite well represented and these owners secure the premiums, advertise their stock and receive the prestige and benefit derived from an exhibition of their animals.

Each year the management learns "new tricks" and this season emphasizes the necessity of an earlier campaign among the people and the personal services of a capable man for several weeks before the opening of the fair to gather the exhibits and visit the people personally. This has been suggested and will in all likelihood be the procedure in future. It has appealed to the management in the past but the lack of funds has caused the matter of expense to be kept down to the minimum. This may be remedied in another year since its importance is so potent and the necessary funds be forthcoming. All are awakening to the importance of the county fair and a greater interest is being shown by local business men which means more assistance to the management and therefore a better fair.

O. A. PROUGH ARRESTED.

Sheriff Richardson today arrested O. A. Prough who is accused by A. Venator of threatening his life and also with trying to cut a man named Ivy with a knife. The Times-Herald has been unable to get any very particular information concerning the difficulty. According to report Mr. Venator killed a bear which Prough claimed was wounded with an S wrench and the latter tried to hold Venator up for $500 and upon being refused Mr. Venator says Prough shot at him. The man arrested is the same who came through here early last spring accompanied by a girl dressed in men's wearing apparel. They killed a calf over on Silver creek belonging to Frank Dibble and were overhauled at Harney by the Sheriff and brought back. The charge was finally withdrawn by the prosecution and the couple allowed to go. It was later learned that they had eloped from a northern California town and were wanted, but after they had gone over into Idaho and the parents found they were married they were left alone.

CIRCUIT COURT ADJOURNS.

Circuit court adjourned for the term today and Judge Davis will leave for home tomorrow. The Judge sentenced James Campbell, who plead guilty to larceny from a building, to one year in the state penitentiary. Harry Smith, who was convicted of horse stealing was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. Deputy Sheriff Terrill will leave the first of the week with the prisoners for Salem. Other matters disposed of, W. T. Smith secured a divorce from his wife and Mrs. Hattie Welcome secured a divorce from H. W. Welcome. In the case of James Campbell vs. J. H. Gard for an accounting it was mutually agreed that judgement be entered for $300 in favor of the plaintiff. The term was one of the lightest in the matter of expense to the county that has been held for sometime.

THE RACES.

The racing furnished good sport and gave general satisfaction among the visitors. The grand stand displayed much interest in each event and the horses were cheered to the echo. While there were really not a sufficient number of runners present to fill and carry out the program as printed each day, special races were made up to suit the class of horses in attendance.

A pleasing feature during the program of yesterday and today were the exhibition trots by Geo. Hagey's trotting stallion "Progress." He was in no condition to go fast or even speeded for the full mile, having just been driven over the mountains from Albany. Yesterday he went with a running mate for half-mile at good speed. He is a great horse and will make a mark next season. He was not bought for racing, however, but was secured for breeding purposes.

There were five driving teams to compete for the Times-Herald silver loving cup and they were all handsome. The judge took considerable time in making his decision and finally awarded the cup to Carrol Cecil's handsome sorrel team.

KILLING CATTLE ON THE RANGE.

The Times-Herald is informed by a reliable source that some scoundrel is killing cattle on the range. This should be looked after by stock growers and if possible the guilty party caught and punished.
