ST LIVE ON LAND FULL PERIOD.

missioner Holds Commuters Strictly To The Law in Making Proof.

The following important announcement has been made by nd Commissioner Ballinger:

"By circular instructions just ued the Commissioner of the neral Land Office, with the proval of the Secretary of the terior, has advised all local ad offices of a change in the ling with regard to homestead tries commuted to cash under e commutation clause of the omestead laws. It is believed at under the old construction the commutation provision, hich recognized constructive sidence, persons desiring to se ure public land for speculative urposes were furnished with in ucements and facilities not ound under other land laws, nd that a large percentage of he homestead entries commuted o cash were, in their first incep ion, made for the purpose only f securing title to the land and ot with the view of obtaining homestead for the sole use and enefit of the entrymen, which as the primary object of the omestead law.

"By ruling just announced, no commutation proof offered under a homestead entry made on or before November 1, 1907, will be accepted unless such proof shows that the entrymen has, in good faith, actually resided upon and cultivated the land embraced within his entry for the full period of fourteen months, thus doing away with the constructive residence period heretofore recognized.

"The ruling just announced, however will not effect homestead entries made previous to November 1, and commuted to cash if, when proof is made, it is satisfactorily shown that the entryman established actual residence on the land embraced within his entry within six months from date of entry, in which case he may be credited with constructive residence from date of entry, but in this connection the entrymen must show that his residence once established, was maintained in good faith for such period as, when added to period of 14 months, residence required under the commutation clause of the homestead act. Commutation proofs will not be accepted when they fail to show that the required residence and cultivation was continued to the date on which application to make final proof was filed in the local Land Office.

"It is the belief of the Commissioner of the Land Office that strict construction of this rule will reduce speculation in this class of entries and reserve for the bona fide home-builder land suitable for agricultural purposes."
