

There is no reason why any man in the United States should be out of employment, no matter what the conditions of business.

In Louisiana, for example, there are 27,000,000 acres of land of which only 6,000,000 are cultivated.

Yet with the whole country full of such opportunities, large cities swarm with men who claim they cannot get work, and municipalities are at their wits end to find some way to help the unemployed.

William Jones, the prominent stockman and banker, and Mary True, of Westfall, both well and favorably known residents of this county, were united in marriage in Boise Saturday evening at 7 o'clock by Justice Dunbar.
