TO ADVERTISE RESOURCES

HARNEY COUNTY FAIR ASSOCIATION OFFERS LIBERAL PRIZES.

Inducement for The Best General Exhibit of Harney County Products—To Defeat Sinking The Artesian Well.

A meeting of the directors of the Harney County Fair Association was held this week at which time the matter of premiums for livestock and products was taken up and preparations made to complete the list ready for printing. The board desires to offer every inducement within its means at the disposal of the Association for that purpose to make the fair this fall the best in its history. Some material changes will be made in the premium list and more money offered for exhibits than ever before.

One new feature this season will be a first prize of $100 and a second prize of $50 for the best display of Harney County products gathered by one person. The prize is not confined to the one raising the products but to the person gathering them and placing them upon display. The conditions covering this offer is that the exhibit awarded first prize becomes the property of the association and the privilege of selecting from the second prize winner, the whole to be properly boxed and shipped to Portland at the expense of the Association where it will be used to advertise the resources of Harney county. These prizes should cause many to make an effort and promises some competition. Every citizen who desires to advertise Harney county will take an interest in this prize and assist in getting up a most creditable exhibit.

The cold backward spring has been detrimental to growing crops, yet from the present outlook the fair this fall will have some splendid exhibits of farm and garden products, while in the fruit and small berry line it may be equal to that of last year or even surpass it.

The board has decided to defer the proposed sinking of an artesian well on the grounds for the present on account of lack of funds. This matter was taken up early this spring and chances for the well being drilled were most flattering, but the general public did not respond with sufficient aid to justify the Association going ahead with the project for fear of having to cut its premium list, therefore the matter was dropped for the time being to be taken up again at a more favorable time. This is a disappointment not only to the Association but to many who desired to see an experiment well. However, it cannot be done without funds and the Association has not the means to do the work.

CHANGE RAISES A QUESTION

UNDER AMENDMENT WHEN DO TERMS OF OFFICE EXPIRE?

Interesting Point Raised That Affects Many Just Elected—Present Officers May Hold Until Next January.

Under the amendment to the Oregon Constitution adopted June 1, changing the term of the general biennial election from June to November, an interesting constitutional question has been raised. The point involved is whether public officials whose terms of office expire in July relinquish their positions next month or do they continue in office until next January, says the Oregonian. This technical point in the amendment and its interpretation has been suggested by friends of District Attorney Manning, who contend that under the provisions of the Constitution, as amended, Mr. Manning can retain the office from Monday, July 6, 1908, until Monday, January 4, 1909. The contention as to Mr. Manning applies also to all state, district and county officers, with the exception of Governor, whose terms of office expire next month.

As amended, Section 14 of Article II of the State Constitution reads as follows:

"The regular general biennial election in Oregon for the year 1910 and thereafter shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. All officers except the Governor, elected for a six-year term in 1904 or for a four year term in 1906, or for a two year term 1908, shall continue to hold their respective offices until the first Monday in January, 1911; and all officers, except the Governor, elected at any regular biennial general election after the adoption of this amendment shall assume the duties of their respective offices on the first Monday in January following such election."

Should the contention of District Attorney Manning's friends be supported in the courts, the tenure of office of all state, district and county officials, which would expire on the first Monday in July, would be affected. On the state ticket, however, Justice R. S. Bean, of the Supreme Court; State Dairy and Food Commissioner J. W. Bailey and Railroad Commissioners T. K. Campbell and Clyde B. Aitchison, all of whom were re-elected, would not be affected. But the technicality would extend to all district and county officers whose successors were elected this month.

A SNAP IN REAL ESTATE—160 acres farm land, the other 80 acres pasture, all fenced, growing crop, garden all planted, small orchard, berries of all kinds, 6-room house with good cellar, an abundance of fine spring water. Can be had for $1400. Also a desert relinquishment, land all under fence with a new house well finished, cellar and wells, 1 1/2 miles of ditch, all level and fine farm land. Some land cleared and about 10 or 12 acres in growing crop. Situated 3/4 mile east of Lawen. Price $450.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

(Portland Correspondent)

While cyclones and floods are visiting the South, East and Middle West, and the rising waters are destroying millions of dollars worth of farm and city property, Oregon is enjoying beautiful weather, delicious fruit, and looking forward with the confidence inspired by assured crops this fall.

On June 24th Portland business men will be guests of Eugene. A special train will leave for the University town at seven in the morning and the party will participate in the opening of the new depot there, will attend the commencement exercises at the University and be entertained at a reception tendered by the Eugene Commercial Club.

The Oregon Humane Society have installed nine ornamental drinking fountains at various points throughout the city. In addition to the regulation drinking cups, places are provided for dogs and horses. Eight of these fountains were presented by citizens of Portland, while the ninth is the gift of the National Humane Society of New York, who are presenting similar fountains to different cities in the United States.

The housewarming of the Portland Commercial Club in its new eight story steel home, which was held last Friday night, brought together a large and enthusiastic body of prominent citizens, and it was probably the happiest event that has occurred in this city since the Lewis & Clark exposition.

The daily rose show in the lobby of the Chamber of Commerce draws thousands of visitors, while at the Commercial Club huge quantities of perfect blooms are furnished each day by different members of the Club for the decoration of the rooms. Oregon City has occupied the center of the stage during the last week with an especially successful rose show and carnival.

Few lectures have had as representative audiences, few lecturers have been accorded the respect attention, as greeted Mr. H. H. Thompson, City Engineer of Seattle for twenty years, when he discussed "Good Roads and How to Make Them" at the Empire Theatre last Saturday night. He proved that such improvements may be had from the standpoint of sanitation and finance.

Shortage in the Beef Supply.

A dispatch from New York says that beef prices in that section of the country, are very much concerned over the shortage in the beef supply. In the last week the price has risen from 1 to 2 cents on the 100 pounds and the price is now around one-third greater than it was the first part of June 1907. The sharp rise in prices is said to be due to the shortage in the supply of cattle in the market and already there is talk of having to have beef which was exported to England last winter shipped back to this country in cold storage.
