

LAND REFORM NEEDED.

When the thoughtful citizen looks over the map of Oregon and sees the monster land grants held in private hands...

While the people of Oregon are dealing with economic questions, while they are getting away from goldbugs and corporations...

Two or three great tracts are stretched across the state from side to side...

The military land grants are now mostly in foreign hands and are not for sale...

And as when we think of it, we think of the broad, revolutionary changes in the land laws...

If the present system of landlordism or land monopoly is to be shown that it is injurious to the state...

The Republican majority in the state is a small number of men. Ellis and Flaxey...
