

CLOSING LAW PASSED

By situated, with the sweet privilege of looking nature in the face, breathing unpolluted air, drinking pure water, and eating pure food, can give it up for the grime and filth, the smoke and stench, the close quarters and adulterated food, the starvation wages and incessant strikes, lockouts and mobs of the city will always be regarded as an insoluble problem.

NEW LAWS NOW IN EFFECT

Twelve of those voted on June 1 must be obeyed.

GOVERNOR'S SIGNATURE FIXED TO THE MEASURES

Passed Upon by the People—Fish Bills Likely to Cause Fight.

THE PORTLAND JOURNAL SAYS:

People of the state may not realize it, but they have 12 new laws to obey since June 23, when the governor's proclamation put into force the constitutional amendments and initiative and referendum laws considered favorably by the people at the recent election of June 1.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

(Portland Correspondent)

There is an intense competition between the different communities of Oregon in issuing attractive and convincing literature. Many of the publications circulated to draw attention to this state today are superior to the most ambitious product of the metropolitan printers ten years ago.

Wool Sales at Ontario.

The wool sale in Ontario Friday was a marked success and was very satisfactory to both buyers and sellers and to Manager E. A. Fraser, of the M. M. Co., who managed the sale.
