It is a fact, on the contrary, that it is almost wholly neglected. Even so indispensable a guide to correct business habits as a simple set of accounts as almost entirely lacking on the farm. The farmer has been successful rather in spite of ignorance and neglect in this respect than because of prudence and careful management. But here also a change in the right direction is noticeable. It is now generally recognized that there is a business side to every vocation. Other things being equal, the farmer who conducts his operation on strict business principles is the one who forges ahead and is therefore the greatest benefactor to society at large.

This fact has prompted a number of higher institutions of learning to incorporate business courses into their schedules of studies. This is particularly true of the land grant or agricultural colleges. Nor is Oregon behind in the procession. This new tendency in education was early recognized by the founders of the institution and a literary commerce course has been offered by the Oregon Agricultural college since 1890. The school of commerce has kept pace with the growth of the institution.

The board of regents has recognized that the institution should serve all industrial classes alike and the courses have consequently been expanded so as to meet the growing demands upon it. While the school of commerce emphasizes work preparatory to commercial pursuits, the fact that there is a business side to every vocation has been recognized by providing elementary courses in business methods especially adapted for the farmer, mechanic, professional man and even for the housekeeper. This is regarded as an exceptionally strong feature of the O. A. C. commercial work and it is expected it will make its self felt in every phase of industrial activity throughout the state.

Woman's Home Companion for August.

The August issue of Woman's Home Companion is full of delightful stories—just the right sort of mid-summer reading. Just to pick up the magazine and look at the little Dutch boy and the windmill on the cover makes you feel cool and comfortable. Then, when you open the magazine, you come across enough stories and entrancing illustrations to give you enjoyment for the entire month.

Some of the authors are Temple Bailey, Juliet Wilbur Hopkins, Marion Hill, Ruth Wilson Harlick, May Isabel Fisk, Clinton Dangerfield and Harvey J. O'Higgins. And when we tell you that these stories are illustrated by Orson Lowell, Alice Barber Stephens, Charlotte Webster Ditzler and other famous artists, you will appreciate what a treat this summer magazine has in store for you.

There are serious and practical things, too. Doctor Hale talks helpfully about "Sleep and Recreation." "The Garden in August," many recipes for summer salads, meats and substitutes for meats by Fannie Merritt Farmer and Christine Terhune Herick, the Summer Fashions by Grace Margaret Gould, Sam Loyd's Own Puzzle page, are a few of the things that will interest most every woman who reads in the August Woman's Home Companion.

SWIFTS COMMENCE BUILDING

COLONIST RATES SEPT. 1 TO OCT 31

WIDELY ADVERTISED.

Numerous Entertainments and General Activities Throughout Oregon—Good Roads Conference August 11.

(Portland Correspondent)
The Cortelyou Club of Brooklyn, N. Y., was represented in Portland Sunday by a delegation of one hundred and twenty-five of its members.

The Cherry Fair at Salem last week was a great success and many were present from Portland and other points.

A contract for $75,000 for the construction of the foundation of the main building for Swift & Company, to be finished within ninety days, was let last Friday.

The Astoria Regatta, with thirty splendid aquatic events, is scheduled for August 27th, 28th, and 29th, and the railroads have made a rate of a fair and a third for the round trip from all points in the state.

The Washington State press association enjoyed one of their best annual conventions at Vancouver during three days of last week. A trip up the Columbia River, a trolley ride to Portland and a banquet at Vancouver, were among the features of entertainment.

Judge George T. Baldwin, Vice President of the Oregon development League, and Mr. W. O. Smith, editor of the Klamath Falls Evening Herald, were in Portland Saturday as a special committee from the Klamath Falls Chamber of Commerce to invite the Y. M. C. A. excursion party which goes to Crater Lake August 7th, to arrange their itinerary so as to include a visit to Klamath Falls.

The colonist rates from all points in the east to all points in Oregon commence Sept. 1st and continue until Oct 31st. Every commercial organization and every citizen of Oregon should begin to make these rates the subject of every letter that goes out of the state. The fare is $30 from Missouri River points, St. Paul, Duluth and Winnipeg; $33 from St. Louis and $38 from Chicago, with proportionate rates from every point in the United States.

No meeting was ever called in Oregon which has attracted the universal enthusiasm that has been created by the Oregon Good Roads Conference, which is to be held in the Convention Hall, 6th floor of the Portland Commercial Club on Tuesday, Aug. 11th. An effort will be made to call the meeting to order promptly at 9:30 a. m. so that there may be a morning, an afternoon and an evening session. The railroads have made a rate of a fare and a third for the round trip for this occasion. Delegations representing every grange, the commercial bodies, and the different counties to be appointed by the county judges, are already reporting that they will be present. Every editor in the state is a delegate at large, as is the mayor of every city, and every county commissioner. A program is being prepared, but every effort will be made to get rid of long winded speeches and to get down to actual work that will produce results.

NEAT TRIBUTE TO THE TOWN BOOSTER.

There are always a few men in any city or town who do more for its advancement than all the others combined, as leaders and pathfinders in new movements looking to public improvements and advancement.

Of course the rank and file of the people are behind matters of this character but without those who take the initiative and supply the steam and hot air, if one pleases, few things are started in the way of exploiting the resources and opportunities of any community.

Some men are naturally built on this plan and most of the others are looking to them for advice and guidance. They are not only valuable in the growth of a city, but are invaluable. A tribute to their class is thus paid in a paragraph we find floating around in our exchanges:

"The best man we have in our town is the one you will always see on the front seat in the progressive band wagon. He is the first one to extend an open and warm hand to greet the stranger and welcome him to the best town in the state. He will resent an insult to our town quicker than he would a slur at one of his own family. He very politely invites the chronic croaker to move on. He is ever ready to give his just proportion to enterprises of a public character. He talks up our town at home and abroad and believes it to be the best place on God's green earth which to live and desires to be buried here when he dies. Let us all try and be like this man for one year and our little city will take on new life and improve as never before in its history."

Death of a Young Stranger.

A young man from New York city named Danj. Burr has been at work on the P-ranch in Harney County, and who was brought over from Plush Monday with the editor, died in this city Wednesday morning. He was evidently in the last stages of quick consumption or pneumonia when he assayed the trip from Plush, but as there was no physician there he insisted on coming here where he could obtain medical attendance. The remains are in the hands of Coroner Wallace, who is making an effort to locate his friends or relatives.—Lakeview Examiner.

CAREY ACT RECLAMATION COMPANY MUST MAKE GOOD.

Crook County Settler Opens Fire on the Columbia Southern Company—Not Able to Deliver Good Title.

Threatened with the loss of his home and the improvements he has made on a tract of land in Crook county, J. N. B. Gerking has begun suit in the circuit court against W. A. Laidlaw for $16,000 damages. Laidlaw is a principal stockholder and general manager of the Columbia Southern Irrigation company, from whom Gerking purchased the land, but he says Laidlaw is unable to deliver title without fraud upon the United States government and committing subornation of perjury in making proof. Gerking paid $6,400 for the land and water right, and he says that with the improvements he has made the place is worth $16,000 today. He cleared 100 acres, seeded 50 acres to alfalfa and planted the remainder to trees, berries and vines. He ran laterals for irrigation and fenced the place, only to learn, as he says, that the defendant is not able to furnish a good title as it agreed to do as soon as he had finished paying for the place.

The operations of the Columbia Southern Irrigation company have been under fire for some time, and Gerking's suit illustrates the position of settlers who have in good faith settled upon the land and made improvements on it.—Portland Journal.

NEW RAILROAD TO MOVE.

Col. E. R. Place received a telegram Wednesday from Portland, Maine, stating that the records relating to the re-organization of the California, Nevada, Idaho & Northern railway had been received and that the meeting of the board of directors had adjourned until the 17th instant at which time the officers will be elected and other important business transacted. The Western offices will be located at Caldwell. There will be a local treasurer here and one local director will be a resident of Caldwell.

A surveying outfit left yesterday for Shanville for the purpose of running a line to Jordan Valley and De Lamar, with a view of running a branch to those points, if it is found to be practicable. It is possible that the line may extend no farther than De Lamar, but the result of the survey will determine this point.—Vale Oriano.

FORMER HARNEY COUNTY MAN DROWNED

According to a news dispatch from Marysville, California, a man by the name of William Sisson was drowned there recently, and it is thought by several people here that it was possibly the Billy Sisson who formerly lived in the southern part of this county where he was in the stock business, later selling out to the American Land & Live Stock Co. The dispatch says:

"Two men are held pending an investigation following the drowning yesterday of William Sisson in the Sacramento river at Vernon. Sisson was in a boat with two companions, who gave their names as Cornelius and Smith. The boat capsized and Sisson was drowned, while the others swam ashore. Cornelius had started to pack up his belongings preparatory to starting for Nevada, when the officers compelled him to remain until after the inquest, as there was some question regarding the exact manner in which Sisson was drowned."
