 Nat Heney was up from his Sunset home Tuesday. Mr.
 Heney says his grain is filling very well considering the dry season and that his garden is very good. He has pumpkin vines seven and eight feet long that have never had any irrigation and his potatoes are fine.
 J. F. Mahon came in yesterday. He recently returned from a visit to Dawson, Alaska, where he is in partnership with his brother John in a large amount of quite rich mining ground.
 Jim arrived in Dawson on the morning of July 4 and in company with a young man from California bought $2 worth of fire crackers and fired them off the first thing. Mr. Mahon says that is a great country and offers a fine opportunity for farming—if one could find sufficient level ground—as they have four months in which it never frost.
 Small fruits do exceedingly well there and vegetables grow rapidly. It took two days by boat from White Pass to Dawson and they were seven days making the same distance coming out. Going against the current was slow work.
