The New Windsor Bar, under the management of Lee Caldwell, is one of the most popular resorts in Eastern Oregon. Drop in when you have a thirst.

If you can't buy lumber and pickets satisfactory from Horton, Purrrington or Roy Bunyard, see Chas. H. Davis at Harney and get a bargain. Some grain yet for sale.

P. C. Petersen left Wednesday with his children for the railroad, the latter and their aunt being enroute to California where they will spend the winter. Mr. Petersen accompanies them as far as Baker City.

Manager Woldenberg of the Blue-Mountain Rapid Transit Line was here for a few days this week leaving Thursday on his return. He was looking after a supply of grain and other business. Mrs. Woldenberg and the children accompanied him over from Canyon City and remained here for a visit with relatives.

Reliability is Our Watchword

The continual growth of this store is one of the most notable facts in the history of merchandising in this county. The cause for this growth is plain to all eyes—the satisfaction which attends every purchase—the complete assortment, the trustworthiness of the merchandise, the efficient service and the always lowest prices, all combining to make this store the logical supply center for grocers and apparel needs.

ask for trading stamps, given with every purchase.

Chas. Belshaw came over this week from his John Day orchard. He brought in a few apples and some vegetables which found a ready market. Mr. Belshaw says his apple crop is very short this season, but he will have a nice lot of pears.

Tom Jenkins has added two more bears to his menagerie up at the brewery and now has time only to feed the 'Teddys' and teach them tricks. The two cubs added this week are some captured by the Bennett boys in Silvies valley last month.

Adam George has 21 quarter sections of grain land. Tracts from 160 acres up to 640 acres. This is not 65 bushels per acre land, but 45 bushels. Stock ranches from 620 up to 4050 acres. All well watered no hoisting of water, ranging in prices from $10 to $27.50 per acre.

Reports from various parts of Eastern Oregon are to the effect that Jack rabbits are increasing quite rapidly, owing no doubt to the very mild winter. The Times-Herald would suggest that in view of this people arrange to protect their fruit trees from the little pests.

MARRIED—At the home of the bride's parents in this city last Sunday evening, Miss Blanche Terrill and Mr. John Caldwell, Rev. C. W. Holloman performing the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contractive parties. Both young people are well known here, having grown from childhood in this city. The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Terrill, a very sweet young lady and John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Caldwell. He is assistant postmaster. The young people left Tuesday morning for the Blue Mt. Springs where they will spend their honeymoon. The Times-Herald joins the many friends in extending hearty congratulations.

Adam George says he can testify as to the efficiency of our game warden at Narrows, having had some experience with him Thursday. Mr. George had some wild geese which were as tame as the domestic fowl, and he removed them from the box in which they were enclosed to feed and water them before bringing them on to Burns. Mr. Fitzgerald at once proceeded to arrest Mr. George and take him before the justice. He soon found that while they were wild geese, in reality they were tame and that he had a man who had been assisting in preserving the game birds of Harney county for 20 years. As soon as he found when he had in custody Mr. George was allowed to go.
